

according to the rites and ceremonies of the Roman Catholic Church. As to such estate as it hath pleased God to intrust me with I dispose of the same as follows:

I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Bridget Gregory all my property real, personal and mixed of what nature or kind soever and wherever the same shall be at the time of my death for her use, during her natural life for her maintenance and support.

And for that purpose I do hereby authorize and empower my said executrix to sign seal, execute and acknowledge all such deed or deeds of Conveyance as may be requisite and necessary for the granting and assuring the same to the purchaser or purchasers thereof in fee simple.

And I desire whatsoever may remain of my estate after the death of my beloved wife may go to some charitable institution of her selection.

And I do nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife my sole executrix of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I James Gregory the Testator have to this my will written on one sheet of paper (2 pages) set my hand and seal this Thirteenth day of December Anno Domini, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-six (1876).
