

Dollars, to be paid to the said ordinary or his assigns, to which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly, and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals.

Dated this seventh day of July A.D. Eighteen hundred and ninety two. The condition of this obligation is such that whereas, Catherine Miller, late of Atlantic City, in the county of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, deceased, did in and by her last will and testament, appoint the said Daniel Smith and William Smith, executors of her said will, and whereas the said Daniel Smith and William Smith, as aforesaid are non-residents; Now therefore if the said Daniel Smith and William Smith shall well and faithfully perform the duties devolving upon them as such executors, according to law, and shall make a just and true account of their administration within twelve calendar months from the date of this obligation, and all the rest and residue of the goods, chattels, credits which shall be found remaining in their hands upon the account of the said administration, the same being first examined and allowed by the judge of the Orphan Court of the county, or other competent authority, shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons, respectively, as is, are, or shall, by law, be entitled to receive the same, then the above obligation to be void and of none effect, or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Signed and sealed in the presence of J.S. Risley, Daniel Smith, William Smith, Henry F. Londenlager, Wm. B. Londenlager.
