In the matter of the alleged Will { Order for probate of Charles Gillingham deceased }

Application having been made by Mary Annie Gillingham for probate of the last Will of Charles W. Gillingham, deceased, and Letters Testamentary thereon, and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken proof, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the will produced, the validity of its execution and the competency of the testator and the probate of said will not having been contested and it appearing that the testator died more than six days ago, it is, on this seventh day of October A.D., 1892 adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last Will and Testament of Charles W. Gillingham deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that Letters Testamentary be issued thereon to Mary Annie Gillingham, the Executrix named in said will, who may qualify therunder.

J. S. Risley
Surrogate of Atlantic County
