Will of Abby M. Baker

I Abby M. Baker, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, make and publish my last will and testament as follows:

- First - I request that no one shall put on mourning because of my death.
- Second - I hope that all will be satisfied with what I leave them; if any are dissatisfied they need not take what is given them by this will but leave the same to be divided among my heirs at law.
- Third - I direct all my just debts and funeral expenses to be paid as soon as may be reasonable after my decease.
- Fourth - In conformity with the request of my late husband John J. Baker I give and bequeath to his nephew David Bartlett and to his niece Kate M. Curtis each the sum of five hundred dollars.
- Fifth - My executors shall invest the sum of three hundred dollars in some good security and apply the interest arising therefrom to the keeping in order of the burial lot of my parents in Mount Cemetery Philadelphia, and my burial place in Laurel Hill Cemetery Philadelphia.
- Sixth - I devise all my interest in the Georgetown property to such of my sisters as may survive me, their heirs and assigns forever.
- Seventh - The residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, shall be divided between my brothers and sisters, share and share alike, provided however that if any of them be indebted to me at the time of my decease the amount of such debt shall be deducted from his or her share.
- Lastly - I hereby constitute and appoint my sister Josephine S. R. Jones executrix of this my last will and testament, and having all faith in her honesty, desire that she shall not be asked to give Bonds either in the State of New Jersey
