Know all Men by these Presents that we, James A. Hislop of the City of Troy in the State of New York and M. D. Youngman and Joseph S. Champion of Atlantic City in the County of Atlantic and in the State of New Jersey, are held and firmly bound unto the Ordinary of the State of New Jersey, in the sum of Eight Hundred dollars, lawful money of the State, to be paid to the said Ordinary, his successors or assigns, to which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our executors, administrators or assigns, jointly, severally and firmly by these presents.

Sealed with our seals, and dated the Eighteenth day of July Anno Domini one thousand, eight hundred and ninety four.

Whereas, Christine M. Hislop late of said County of Atlantic, hath died, having first made her last Will and Testament in writing, which hath been duly proved before the Surrogate of said County of Atlantic, and the same entered of record. and whereas, said testatrix hath appointed the said James A. Hislop who resides out of the State of New Jersey, and in the State of New York as the executor thereof, to whom letters testamentary are about to be granted thereon, by the Surrogate of said County of Atlantic, -

Now therefore, if the said James A. Hislop the executor named in the said Will and Testament of the said Christine M. Hislop deceased, do well and truly administer all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, moneys and effects which have or shall come to the hands of the said James A. Hislop or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for the said James A. Hislop and all other, the estate, real and personal, of the said Christine M. Hislop deceased, being in the State of New Jersey, and the uses and purposes in said Will mentioned expressed, then the above obligation to be void; otherwise, to be and remain in full force and virtue.
