

scribing witnesses to said will, and were duly sworn and examined and their testimony was reduced to writing and filed.

And it appearing to the Court from the testimony so taken that said will was duly executed and attested and that at the time of executing same the testator was of legal age, sound mind and memory and not under any restraint, the Court now admit the said will of George Muegel deceased, to probate and order the same together with the testimony so taken to be recorded according to law.

On application, the Court grants unto Charlotte Muegel, letters testamentary under said will, she being named executrix therein.

Whereupon the said Charlotte Muegel, in open court, accepted said appointment. No bond. And Frank Betigheimer, August Reinhardt and Chas. F. Juergens are appointed appraisers. Letters issued,
