

having first been duly affirmed well and truly to administer the Goods, Chattels, Rights and Credits of the deceased, and make a true and perfect inventory thereof and exhibit the same in to the Register's Office of Philadelphia, on or before the 14th day of June next, and to render a just and true account calculation and reckoning of the said administration, on or before the 14th day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight or when lawfully required, and also to diligently and faithfully regard and will and truly comply with the provisions of the Act relating to Collateral Inheritance.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of Office, at Philadelphia, this 14th day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety seven.

The said testator died on the 3rd day of May, 1897 at 8³⁰ o'clock as per affidavit filed.

B. Has. J. Erwin,
Dep. Register.

I, David R. Lewis, of the City of Philadelphia Merchant being of sound mind memory and understanding do hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all other Wills by me at any time heretofore made.

I direct my Executors hereinafter named to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses (as soon as) conveniently may be after my decease. All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate real personal and mixed of whatsoever kind and wheresoever situate, of which I may be seized or possessed or to which I may be entitled at the time of my decease I give devise and bequeath as follows: one third thereof to my wife of name D. absolutely and in fee; and the remaining two thirds thereof I give devise and bequeath unto my son Edwin B. Lewis and I hereby appoint my friend B. Charles B. Sayre, and my brother H. Frank B. Lewis, as trustees for my said son, to invest and keep invested all my said estate in such securities as they may deem proper, and for the best interests of my said son, and in case the said trustees invest in other securities than those authorized by law, they are to be relieved of any liability by reason of such investment provided they exercise the same care and prudence as they exercise in relation to their own funds to collect the income thereof and to pay the same over to my said wife to be used by her for the benefit of herself and my said son until he shall arrive at the age of twenty five years and if my said wife should die before my said son reaches the age of twenty five years then my said trustees shall apply so much of said income as may be necessary to the support, maintenance and education of my said son Edwin B. until he shall arrive at the age of twenty five years and upon his arrival, at the age of twenty five years then to pay over and transfer and convey to him the said two thirds of my estate so held in trust absolutely and in fee; and in case I should leave any other child or children I hereby will and direct that such child or children shall be entitled to share equally with my said son Edwin B. the said two thirds of my estate herein given in trust, and that the said trustees shall hold the same in trust for such child or children upon the same trusts and conditions and shall pay the income to my wife in the same manner as above provided for my said son Edwin B. until such child or children shall respectively arrive at the age of twenty five years; and as each child shall arrive at said age of twenty five years his or her share of the principal of said trust estate shall be paid over and transferred to him or her absolutely and in fee; and if any child shall die before reaching the age of twenty five years leaving issue such issue shall be entitled to and shall take the share of the parent so dying and if any child shall die without leaving issue then the share of the one so dying shall go to my surviving child or children. In case all my children should die without leaving issue before reaching the age of twenty five years, then I give devise and bequeath the whole income of my estate herein given in trust unto my said wife
