the last will and testament of } Order For Probate.
Charles M. Jordan, deceased.

It appearing from the petition of Sarah F. Jordan, filed herein, that Charles M. Jordan, late of the City of Washington, District of Columbia, died on the 30th day of March one thousand nine hundred and ninety nine, more than ten days ago, having first duly made and executed a paper writing purporting to be his last will and testament, in and by which he failed to appoint an Executor thereof; and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances, taken proof and being satisfied of the genuineness of the will produced, the validity of its execution, and the competency of the testator, and no caveat against the probate of said will having been filed and the said Sarah F. Jordan being in my judgment a fit person to administer the estate of the said testator. It is on this Eighth day of July, 1904 adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last will and testament of the said Charles M. Jordan, deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate, and it is ordered that Letters of Administration with the will annexed be issued thereon to the said Sarah F. Jordan.
