Gottlob Hearley, Executor of the within named Frederick Hearley deceased, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that the within writing contains the true last will and testament of Frederick Hearley therein named, deceased, so far as she knows and as he verily believes that he will well and truly perform the same by paying first the debts of the said deceased and then the legacies in the said testament specified, so far as the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased can thereunto extend, and that he will make and exhibit into the Surrogate's Office of the County of Atlantic, at or before the expiration of three calendar months, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said decedent that have or shall come to his knowledge or possession, or to the possession of any other person or persons for his use and render a just and true account when thereunto lawfully required; and also diligently and faithfully regard and well and truly comply with the provisions of the act relating to collateral inheritance.

Sworn and subscribed at Mays Landing, County and State above said, the 16th day of October, A. D. 1907 before me,
Emanuel C. Shaner,
Surrogate.

Gottlob Hearley.

Atlantic County Surrogate's Court

In the Matter of the probate of the last will and testament of Frederick Hearley deceased. | Order for Probate.

Application having been made to me by Gottlob Hearley the executor named in the last will and testament of Frederick Hearley late of Hammonton in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey deceased, for probate of the said will and testament and letters testamentary thereon and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken the proofs and being satisfied of the genuineness of the said will, produced the validity of its execution and the competency of the testator, and the probate of the said will not being contested, and it appearing that the testator died more than ten days ago to wit, January 20, 1907. It is on this sixteenth day of October A. D. 1907, adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is established as the last will and testament of Frederick Hearley deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate, and it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to Gottlob Hearley the executor named in the said will who may qualify thereunder.
