Atlantic County Surrogate's Court.

In the matter of the estate of Albert Morris deceased for Probate.

It appearing from the verified petition filed herein by James C. Fisher, that Albert Morris, late of Redville, in the County of Northumberland and State of Virginia died on or about the twenty-third day of November A. D. 1907, having first duly made and executed a paper writing purporting to be his last will and testament, wherein James C. Fisher, the said petitioner, and Annie H. Morris were appointed Executors thereof, and it further appearing that the said Annie H. Morris did renounce her right as co-executor to administer upon the estate of the said Albert Morris, deceased, and did refuse to take upon herself the burden of the same, and it further appearing that the said Albert Morris, deceased, was not at the time of his death a resident of this state, but was a resident of Redville, in the County of Northumberland in the State of Virginia, and that the aforesaid writing was duly admitted to probate by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County of Northumberland and State of Virginia, as and for the last Will and Testament of the said Albert Morris, deceased, and it further appearing that a copy of the record of such will and the certificate of the said probate thereof certified and attested as a true copy by the said Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County of Northumberland and State of Virginia by whom the said will was admitted to probate as aforesaid, and exemplified and authenticated according to the act of Congress, has been filed in this office and it appearing by the aforesaid record of probate that said will was duly executed in accordance with the laws of this state.

I am thereupon on this Twenty seventh day of May A. D. 1908, ordered, adjudged and decreed that the aforesaid will of the said Albert Morris be and
