

Be it Remembered, That I, Stephen Greene, of the City of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania, being in good health, but aware of the uncertainty of life, do make the following as my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other Wills by me at any time heretofore made.

First. I order and direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my executors as soon after my decease as conveniently can be done.

Second. - I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Martha Mafflin Greene, the entire contents of the dwelling house, stable and carriage house on Tulpehocken Street, Germantown, absolutely. In the event, however, of my wife dying before me, the contents of the stable and carriage house shall be sold, and the proceeds shall become a part of my residuary estate; and the contents of the dwelling house shall be divided by my surviving children among themselves, as they may agree. Should there be any undivided portion, the same shall be sold and the proceeds shall become a part of my residuary estate.

Third. I give and bequeath to my sister, Mary E. Shattuck, the right to reside upon, use, occupy and enjoy the tenement and grounds owned by me which she may occupy at the time of my decease, during the whole term of her natural life, free from all rent and charges of any kind.

Fourth. - I give and bequeath to my son, William Houston Greene, the entire capital stock owned by me, at the time of my decease, in the Stephen Greene Company, in the City of Philadelphia. And in the event of my son, William Houston Greene, not surviving me, I direct that the business of the Stephen Greene Company shall be continued and carried on by my Executors and Trustees as hereinafter provided, and the net profits therefrom shall become part of my residuary estate, with authority in my said Executors and Trustees to sell all of the Capital Stock of the said Company now owned by me, at any time after three months from the date of my decease, for such sum or sums and upon such terms of payment as they in their judgment shall consider for the best interest of my said estate, and the net amount realized from such sale shall become part of my residuary estate.

Fifth. - I further authorize and empower my said Executors and Trustees to continue any other business in which I may be engaged at the time of my decease, until such time as in their judgment, it shall be to the interest of my estate to dispose of the same.

Sixth. - I give and bequeath to my sons-in-law, Charles F. Evans, Howard Hill, Rev. Joseph M. Hayman, and my daughter-in-law Sara Greene, the sum of five thousand dollars each.

Seventh. - I direct that my property known as the Kenonah Military Academy, in the Borough of Kenonah, New Jersey shall be managed and controlled by my son, William Houston Greene, hereinafter appointed one of my Executors and Trustees, until the same shall be disposed of by my Executors and Trustees, whenever, in their judgment, they deem it to be to the advantage of my estate so to do.

Eighth. - All moneys derived from any insurance upon my life shall go to my Executors, and become part of my residuary estate.

Ninth. - I direct that all legacies and bequests shall be paid free and clear of any collateral inheritance tax, which shall be paid out of the principal of my residuary estate.

Tenth. - All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real personal and mixed, wheresoever situated, I give, devise and bequeath to my Trustees hereinafter named, On Trust, to pay over the net income arising therefrom as follows: -

1. I direct that of the said income, the sum of forty dollars shall be paid monthly to my aforesaid sister, Mary E. Shattuck, during the whole term of her natural life, upon her death, the sum of twenty dollars per month shall be paid to each of her children, Edwin C. Shattuck, Nathan G. Shattuck, and Mrs. Amy C. Coffey (formerly Amy E. Shattuck), as long as either of them shall survive, and upon the decease of any or either of them, the amount to which such deceased child would be entitled shall become a part of my residuary estate.

2. All the rest, residue and remainder of the net income of my estate, I direct shall be paid in quarterly payments, two-thirds thereof to my wife, Martha Mafflin Greene, for life, and the remaining one-third to my children, share and share alike, William Houston ^{Greene}, Susan S. Evans, Callie Houston Greene, Annie H. Hill, Mabel Martha Hayman and Cornelia Bonnell Greene; And in the event of the death of any of said children, before their mother and leaving issue, then such issue shall take deceased parent's portion among them, share and share alike; On the death of my wife, I direct that the two-thirds of the income payable to her, shall thereafter be paid to my son and daughters in equal shares, until the distribution of my estate as hereinafter provided; and should any of them, my said son and daughters be dead at the time of the death of their mother, I direct that the said income be paid to the children of such deceased child; upon the death of my last surviving child I direct that the whole principal of this Trust Estate shall be distributed in equal portions, to and among my grand-children, the
