In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 26th day of April A.D. 1907

Elizabeth N. McMackin

signed, sealed, published and declared by the testator above named, as and for her last will and Testament, in the presence of us who have hereunto at her request subscribed our names in her presence and the presence of each other, as witnesses hereto

John Maguire
James B. Hunter
M. D. Hunter

State of New Jersey
County of Atlantic

James B. Hunter, one of the witnesses to the assumed writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Elizabeth N. McMackin, deceased, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he saw Elizabeth N. McMackin, the said testatrix sign and seal the assumed writings and heard her publish, pronounce and declare the same to be her last will and testament; said will being executed in duplicate, one of which copies is signed Elizabeth N. McMackin, and the other Eliza N. McMackin, who were one and the same person, and that both of said wills were looked upon as being one instrument for one and the same purpose, only being signed in the manner stated, because the said testatrix was known by both names.

Deponent further says that at the time of the doing thereof, the said testatrix was of sound and disposing mind and memory, so far as this deponent knows and can be verily believe; and deponent further says that John Maguire and M. D. Hunter, the other subscribing witnesses to the said will were present at the same time with deponent when the said wills were signed by the <sup>said</sup> testatrix and by her published and declared as and for her last will and testament, as aforesaid and that the said John Maguire and M. D. Hunter subscribed their names to said wills as witnesses, at the request of, and in the presence of the said testatrix and in the presence of each other.

In the matter of the probate of the last will and testaments of Eliza N. McMackin or Elizabeth N. McMackin, deceased. } Order for probate

It appearing from the petition of George S. Malone filed herein, that Eliza N. McMackin also known as Elizabeth N. McMackin, late of the City of Atlantic City in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, died on the 27th day of January 1909, and more than ten days ago, having first duly made and executed two paper writings purporting to be her last will and testament, which wills are identical the same as to date and contents, the only exception being that one was signed Eliza N. McMackin and the other Elizabeth
