Atlantic County Surrogate's Court

In the Matter of the Estate of the Late Will and Testament of George Joly, deceased
Order for Probate

Application having been made to me by George E. Joly, Jr., the executor named in the last will and testament of George Joly, late of Atlantic County in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, deceased, for probate of the said will and testament and letters testamentary thereon, and the surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken the proofs, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the said will, provided, the validity of the execution, and the competency of the testator, and the probate of the said will not being contested and it appearing that the testator died more than ten days ago September 24, 1909

It is on this 14th day of October A. D. 1909 adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is established as the last will and testament of George Joly, deceased, and the same being admitted to probate, and let it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to George E. Joly, Jr., the executor named in the said will who may qualify thereunder
