

in the said City of Philadelphia.

Know all the heirs, residuary and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, whatsoever and wherever the same may be at the time of my decease, direct my executor hereinafter named to turn into money, as soon as conveniently can be done after my decease, and to pay the net proceeds thereof unto my nephews Horace M. Watson and Susan S. Watson and my niece Emma A. Fleming and Martin Dr. Service, in equal portions share and share alike, their heirs, Executors, Administrators and assigns forever.

Lastly, I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my friend Martin H. Tuttle, Esq. to be the executor of this my last Will and Testament, and for the purpose of paying debts, making distribution or for any other purpose, I hereby give and grant unto my said executor full power to sell and dispose of all or any part of my real estate (except that specifically devised to Harry C. Evans) either at public or private sale as he may deem proper and to execute and deliver good and sufficient deeds or other assurances in the law necessary to convey a good and sufficient title in fee simple or otherwise to the purchaser or purchasers thereof without any responsibility or liability on the part of the purchaser or purchasers to see to the application of the purchase moneys.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nine (1909)

Joseph C. Fry
