

Other than the provision herein made for her, and to be required to give no bond.

And Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed myself, this fourteenth day of July, A. D. 1908.

Edward Graves (deceased) signed, sealed, published and declared by Edward Graves, the above named testator, at Washington, D.C. on the day and date above mentioned, as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

Wm A. Mc Kenney 15th St. E. Pa. Ave. N.W.
James F. Hood 15th St. E. Penna Ave N.W.
Supreme Court of the District of Columbia
Holding Probate Court

District of Columbia, to wit:
On this 16th day of November A. D. 1910 personally appeared David N. Houston, who on oath says that he does not know any will or codicil of Edward Graves, late of said District, deceased other than the instrument of writing hereto annexed dated July 14, 1908; that he has received the same from the American Security and Trust Company, and that said Edward Graves died on or about the 6th day of November 1910.

Sworn to and subscribed before me
Wm. L. Taylor
Deputy Register of Wills for the District of Columbia
Clerk of the Probate Court
Supreme Court of the District of Columbia
Holding Probate Court

District of Columbia, to wit:
On this 11th day of November A. D. 1910, personally appeared William A. Mc Kenney, who on oath says that he is one of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing last will and testament of Edward Graves, deceased, late of the District of Columbia, that the testator therein named signed said will in his presence; that said testator published, pronounced and declared the same to be his last will and testament; that at the time of so doing said testator was, to the best of affiant's apprehension of sound and disposing mind, and capable of executing a valid deed or contract; and that affiant's name as witness to the aforesaid will was signed in the presence and at the request of testator and in the presence of James F. Hood, the other subscribing witness, who also signed in the presence of the affiant and in the presence and at the request of the testator.

Sworn to and subscribed before me Wm. A. Mc Kenney
Wm. L. Taylor
Deputy Register of Wills for the District of Columbia
Clerk of the Probate Court

Supreme Court of the District of Columbia
Holding Probate Court

District of Columbia, to wit:
On this 14th day of November A. D. 1910 personally appeared James F. Hood, who on oath says that he is one of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing last will and testament of Edward Graves, deceased, late of the District of Columbia, that the testator therein named signed said will in his presence; that said testator published, pronounced and declared the same to be his last will and testament; that at the time of so doing said testator was, to the best of affiant's apprehension of sound and disposing mind, and capable of executing a valid deed or contract; and that affiant's name as witness to the aforesaid will was signed in the presence and at the request of testator and in the presence of William A. Mc Kenney, the other subscribing witness, who also signed in the presence of the affiant and in the presence and at the request of the testator.

Sworn to and subscribed before me on the day aforesaid James F. Hood
M. J. Griffith
Deputy Register of Wills for the District of Columbia
Clerk of the Probate Court

In the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia
Holding a Probate Court
In Re Estate of Edward Graves Deceased No 17500

Order.
Upon consideration of the Petition Katharine G. Graves and the American Security and Trust Company, Executors of the Will of Edward Graves, deceased, herein filed, the consent and waiver of Charlton Graves, the answer of the Guardian ad litem of the infant, heir at law and next of kin, of said decedent, said will having been duly proven by oath of the two subscribing witnesses thereto and no cause having been given against the probate of said will, it is by the Court this 14th day of November, A. D. 1910,

Ordered, that said will be and the same hereby is, admitted to record and probate, as a will of real and personal estate, and that letters testamentary upon said estate be and they hereby are granted to the said Katharine G. Graves and the American Security and Trust Company, Executors as aforesaid, and it is further ordered, that the said Katharine G. Graves before entering upon the discharge of her duties, execute a bond in the penal sum of fifteen thousand dollars with sufficient surety conditioned for the faithful discharge of her duties in the premises.

By the Court
Abby M. Gould
Justice