Eulalie Dorothy Lockard, executrix of the will named Edwin J. Lockard deceased, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that the within writing contains the true last will and testament of Edwin J. Lockard, therein named deceased, so far as she knows and as she verily believes; that she will well and truly perform the same by paying first the debts of the said deceased and then the legacies in the said testament specified so far as the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased can thereunto extend, and that she will make and exhibit in the Suzrogate's Office of the County of Atlantic, at or before the expiration of three calendar months, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said decedent that have or shall come to her knowledge or possession, or to the possession of any other person or persons for her use; and render a just and true account when thereunto lawfully required; and also diligently and faithfully regard and well and truly comply with the provisions of the Act relating to collateral inheritances

Atlantic County Orphans' Court In the matter of the Probate of the Last Will and Testament of Edwin J. Lockard deceased. } Order for Probate.
Application having been made to me by Eulalie Dorothy Lockard the executrix named in the last will and testament of Edwin J. Lockard, late of Atlantic City in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, deceased, for probate of the said will and testament and letters testamentary thereon, and the Court, having inquired into the circumstances and taken the proofs and being satisfied of the genuineness of the said will, produced, the validity of its execution, and the competency of the testatrix and the probate of the said will by filing of a caveat being contested, which caveat was on this day duly withdrawn and it appearing that the testatrix died more than ten days ago.

It is on this third day of June, A.D. 1913, adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is established as the last will and testament of Edwin J. Lockard deceased, and the same is thereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to Eulalie Dorothy Lockard the executrix named in the said will who may qualify thereunder.
