In the matter of the Probate of the Last Will & Testament of Caroline A. King, deceased. Order for Probate

It appearing from the petition of Robert W. King, filed here in that Caroline A. King, late of the City of Atlantic City, in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, died on or about the second day of January, 1913, and more than ten days ago, having first duly made and executed a paper purporting to be her last will and testament, in and by which she failed to appoint any executor thereof, and the surrogate having inquired into the circumstances, taken proof and being satisfied of the genuineness of the will produced the validity of its execution and the competency of the testatrix and no caveat against the probate of said will having been filed and the said Robert W. King being in my judgment a fit person to administer the estate of the said testatrix and the next of kin having requested that administration upon this estate be granted to the said Robert W. King, the petitioner,

It is on this seventeenth day of June, 1913 adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last will and testament of the said Caroline A. King, deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate, and it is further ordered that letters of administration with the will annexed be issued thereon to the said Robert W. King upon the giving by him of a bond as required by law.
