

qualified; to all whose acts, as such, full faith and credit are and ought to be given as well in Courts of Judicature as elsewhere; and that the said record, certificate and attestation are in due form of law and made by the proper officer.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, this sixteenth day of June A.D. 1913.

Isaac Johnson, President Judge.

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA, ) DELAWARE COUNTY, ) SS.

I, A. J. Dalton, Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Delaware, State aforesaid, do certify that the Honorable Isaac Johnson, by whom the foregoing Attestation was made, and who has thereunto subscribed his name was, at the time of the making thereof, and still is President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Orphans' Court, and Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, in and for the County of Delaware, duly commissioned and qualified; to all whose acts, as such full faith and credit are and ought to be given, as well in Courts of Judicature as elsewhere.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said Court this Sixteenth day of June A.D. 1913.

A. J. Dalton, Prothonotary.

I, Deborah Jamison, of Radnor, Delaware County, Pennsylvania, make this my Will hereby revoking any and all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

FIRST. I direct that my just debts and funeral expenses shall be paid.

SECOND. I give and bequeath to my son John Jamison, the sum of One Thousand dollars ($1,000).

THIRD. If at the date of my death, my daughter Jane Jamison is living, I give, devise and bequeath to her all the residue of my property, real and personal, and appoint her sole executrix of this will and direct that she shall not be required to file any inventory or account, or give any security.

FOURTH. If at the date of my death, my daughter Jane Jamison is deceased, and my son Samuel Jamison is living, I give, devise and bequeath all the said residue of my property, real and personal, to my son Samuel Jamison and appoint him sole executor of this will; and direct that he shall not be required to file any inventory or account, or give any security. In the event that this bequest to my son Samuel Jamison takes effect, I desire, although I do not make it a condition of the bequest to him, that if my son John Jamison should, through financial reverses or otherwise, become destitute, my said son Samuel Jamison shall apply a reasonable proportion of the income of the estate derived by him under this Will to the support of the said John Jamison.

FIFTH. If at the date of my death both my daughter Jane Jamison and my son Samuel Jamison should be deceased, then I give, devise and bequeath all my property, real and personal to my son John Jamison and the Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives and Granting Annuities, in Trust, to pay over the net income of my said property to my son John Jamison during his life, and upon his death, to hold the principal of said estate as a fund to be known as the "John Jamison, Senior Fund", the principal of which is to be kept invested, and the income of which shall be equally divided among the University Hospital, the German Hospital and the Rush Hospital for Consumptives all in the City of Philadelphia.

SIXTH. In case my estate goes to my son John Jamison and The Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives and Granting Annuities, in trust, as provided in the fifth paragraph of this Will, I charge the net income payable to John Jamison during his life, and payable after his death for the Charities hereinabove specified, with the payment of the following sums, which shall be paid out of the net income of my said estate by my said son John Jamison and The Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives and Granting Annuities so long as said Trustees, or the survivor of them or their successors in the trust hold the fund, viz:

Deborah Jamison

Deborah Jamison

Ten dollars ($10.00) per year to the West Laurel Hill Cemetery Company for the care of Lot 309, section Marion, in the name of the estate of John Jamison.

Ten dollars (10.00) per year to the Friends' Meeting at Quakertown, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, for the care of the graves of my son William F. Jamison and the parents and grand-parents of my husband, John Jamison, whose graves are in the burying ground connected with the Meeting.

Ten dollars ($10.) per year to the Church of the Brethren, Germantown Avenue above Sharpnack Street, Germantown, Philadelphia, for the Sinking Fund towards the care of the burying grounds connected with the Church.

Ten dollars ($10.) per year to the Church of the Brethren Indian Creek, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, for the care of the graves of my parents, John and Catherine Nice, which are in the Pricoe burying ground connected with that church.

SEVENTH. If, through the death of my daughter Jane Jamison, I should inherit from her any property, then I direct that there shall be paid out of the principal of such property inherited from her, Ten Thousand dollars ($10,000) to Gertrude Barrar Tyson, if she be living at my death; and if she be not living at that time, then to her daughter Francis Tyson, both now living at 1506 Spruce Street, Philadelphia; Also the sum of Five Thousand dollars ($5,000) to the University Hospital for the endowment of a bed, to be known as the "John Jamison, Senior Bed", and Two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) to St. Stephens' Church, in the City of Philadelphia, for the endowment of a pew, to be called the "Catherine Jamison Pew". All of these bequests out of the property inherited from my daughter, to be free of collateral Inheritance Tax, which shall be paid out of any balance of property inherited from my daughter. If these sums of money, or any of them shall have been paid by my daughter, my son or myself, to the respective institutions, then to the extent of such payments these bequests are not to take effect. The balance of any money which may be inherited by me from my daughter, in case she dies before me, shall go into my residuary estate.

Deborah Jamison

EIGHTH. In case both my daughter Jane Jamison, and my son Samuel Jamison are deceased at the date of my death, I appoint my son John Jamison and The Pennsylvania Company for Insurances on Lives and Granting Annuities executors of my will.

NINTH. I give to my executors, and also to my trustees under this will, full power and authority to sell any and all of my real estate, at public or private sale, and to execute to the purchasers good and sufficient conveyances therefor, without any liability on the part of the purchasers to see to the application of the purchase money.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 8th day of February, A.D. one thousand nine hundred and four. (1904).

(Signed) Deborah Jamison (SEAL)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Deborah Jamison as and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

(Signed) Sarah I. Gill

Carlyle H. Ross

1335 Land Title Bldg.,

Phila. Pa.