

as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, in his presence and the presence of each other, have at his request, hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

George E. Beers
Benjamin Slade
William B. Arvine

State of Connecticut)
New Haven County) SS New Haven February 18, 1913.

We, George E. Beers, Benjamin Slade and William B. Arvine the undersigned, being duly cautioned and sworn, do depose and say that we, on the 18th day of February, 1913, saw Constant A. Moeller, testator in the foregoing will, sign and execute said will and heard him declare the same to be his last will and testament, and that we, in his presence and the presence of each other, at his request, subscribed our names as thereto as witnesses, and that at the time of the execution of said will the said Constant A. Moeller was of apparent sound mind and memory.

George E. Beers
Benjamin Slade
William B. Arvine

Subscribed and sworn to before me the day and year above written, and I hereby certify that the foregoing affidavit was taken at the request of the testator.

Earliss P. Arvine
Notary Public.

District of New Haven, ss. Probate Court July 14th 1914.

The within and foregoing instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of Constant A. Moeller late of New Haven in said District, deceased having been presented for probate and all parties interested in the probate thereof, having had notice of the hearing thereon, said instrument is proved and allowed as the last will and testament of said deceased, and ordered to be recorded.

John L. Gilson
Judge.

At a court of Probate, holden at New Haven in and for the District of New Haven, on the 14th day of July, A. D. by continuance.

Present, Hon John L. Gilson, Judge.

Estate of Constant A. Moeller late of New Haven in said District deceased.

Written return, under oath, was made that in compliance with the order of this court made on the 4th day of June, 1914, public notice was given of the hearing on the application praying that an instrument in writing purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased might be probated and that letters testamentary might be granted on said estate, by publishing said order three times in the Union a newspaper having a circulation in said District, - and that certain other notices was given as directed by this Court, which return this Court finds to be true, accepts and orders to be recorded.

After hearing the parties with their evidence, this Court finds that the allegations approved and true, that said instrument was duly executed by the testator for his last will and testament and that he was at the time of executing the same of lawful age and of sound mind and memory. It is therefore considered by this Court that said will is duly proved, and the same is approved, allowed and ordered to be recorded.

And on the same day Herbert L. Moeller, Ernest F. Moeller Moses S. Rogers and Richard F. Jehn all of New Haven, the executors named in said will are ordered to give a probate bond in the penal sum of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars before entering upon their duties as such executors and said executors are approved and letters testamentary are granted to them, they having appeared in Court, accepted said trust, and given a Probate Bond with sufficient surety, in the sum of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars which bond is accepted and approved.
