

I, Benjamin Finberg, of the City of Philadelphia being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made.

Item: After the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses I give, devise and bequeath my entire estate of whatsoever kind the same may be and wherever the same may be situate, unto my beloved wife, Annie Finberg, her heirs and assigns absolutely provided however, that my nephew Louis Frankel shall have at least one-fourth interest in the real estate, brokerage, conveyancing and insurance business of B. Finberg heretofore carried on in Philadelphia, until such time as my shares of stock in the Family Building and Loan Association shall have matured, whereafter I desire that he shall have such increased share as shall be mutually agreed upon between him and my said wife. I have full confidence that my wife will make proper provision for the maintenance of my children and for their own protection against improvidence.

Lastly: I nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife Annie Finberg sole executrix of this my last will and testament as well as the Guardian of the persons and estates of my minor children. I further request my executrix to employ my friend Adolph Eicholz as her attorney, to assist her as much as possible in the settlement and management of my estate. IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and seal this Sixth day of October one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (1915)
