

McCann, during his lifetime, and to be kept in repair by him, and upon his death or marriage said real estate to revert to my sister, Mary L. Brown. And I also bequeath to my husband the following items of jewelry which he gave me: one solitaire diamond ring, one two stone diamond ring, one pair of earrings, one three stone diamond neck-pin; I give to my nieces, Mrs Warren Terrell and Mrs May Leah Boyd, all my outglass, to be equally divided between them.

Third. I bequeath to my sister, Mary L. Brown, all of my clothing, also long lace coat and hat, the set of pearl jewelry which I inherited from my father, and at the death or marriage of my husband the house, ground, and all furniture therein, which I have bequeathed to him, to my sister, Mary L. Brown, to be held by her during her life, and on her death to be divided between her two daughters, Mrs Warren Terrell and Mrs Leah Boyd. The three stone diamond Ring which came from my father I give to my sister, Mary L. Brown, and at her death to her two daughters. Also to my sister, Mary L. Brown, a gold chain, masonic mark, and a pair of gold bracelets, one of which is an arm band which my Mother gave me and the other a garnet and pearl setting.

Fourth. My brother having inherited from my father's estate an equal sum with me, and he being amply provided for, I desire that no part of my estate shall be given to him.

Fifth. I bequeath to my stepdaughter, Regina E. Klipper, a pair of gold band bracelets given me by my father, and a short lace coat. I also give to her child, Roberta Klipper, named for me, my gold watch, and to Elinor Klipper an emerald and ruby ring.

SIXTH. I bequeath to my niece, Mrs Warren Terrell, one three stone flat diamond ring and my Singer sewing machine, given me by my father; also one of my gold thimbles.

Seventh. I bequeath to my niece, Mrs May Leah Boyd, one three stone, garnet ring and a gold cluster pin with diamonds and emerald; also one of my gold thimbles.

Eighth. In the event of my mother's death, I give and bequeath all my right, title and interest of whatsoever kind of both real and personal property that she may bequeath to me by will or otherwise, to my sister, Mary L. Brown, or her heirs. It is my wish that she shall inherit my share of my mother's estate. I desire also that my executrix shall purchase a fitting monument for my grave from my life insurance in the Prudential.

I hereby appoint my sister, Mary L. Brown, my sole executrix without bond or security. Signed and Sealed by me this 2nd day of August, A. D. 1918.
