I, JOHN P. MATHIEU, of the City of Philadelphia, Manufacturer, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all Wills by me at any time heretofore made.

I. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my Executors hereinafter named as soon after my decease as may be found convenient.

II. I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, MARY E. MATHIEU, the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.), absolutely. I also give and bequeath unto my dear wife, MARY E. MATHIEU, all of my household goods and furniture contained in my present City residence in Philadelphia, as well that in my summer home at Atlantic City, New Jersey, together with my automobile and such horses and carriages as I may possess, for my personal use, at the time of my decease.

III. I give and bequeath unto my dear daughter, MABEL E. MILLER, wife of Charles J. Miller, Jr., the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.), absolutely.

IV. All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, whatsoever and wheresoever situate at the time of my decease, I give, devise and bequeath unto my dear wife, MARY E. MATHIEU, my daughter, MABEL E. MILLER, and THE PHILADELPHIA TRUST SAFE DEPOSIT & INSURANCE COMPANY, and to the survivor or successor of them, absolutely and in fee simple, IN TRUST, nevertheless, to, for and upon the following uses, trusts, intents and purposes, and subject to the conditions, limitations and appointments hereinafter mentioned and specifically declared, that is to say:

IN TRUST, to keep invested such moneys as may be invested in good interest-bearing securities at the time of my decease, and to invest and reinvest such moneys as may from time to time come into the hands of my said Trustees in other good interest-bearing securities, with power to alter and change such investments from time to time whenever they may deem the same prudent, and to collect and receive all of the rents, interest, dividends and income therefrom, and after deducting all necessary costs, charges and expenses incident to the management of my estate, to pay over the net interest and income derived therefrom unto my dear wife, MARY E. MATHIEU, in quarterly payments for and during the full term of her natural life; and from and immediately after the decease of my dear wife, MARY E. MATHIEU, I direct my said Trustees of the survivor or successor of them in the trust to pay over the entire net income derived from my said estate in quarterly payments unto my dear daughter, MABEL E. MILLER, for and during the full term of her natural life.

From and immediately after the decease of my dear daughter, MABEL E. MILLER, I direct my said Trustees or Trustee, or the successor of them in the trust, to divide and pay over the entire principal of my estate unto all and every the child or children of my dear daughter, MABEL E. MILLER, living at the time of her decease, and the issue of such child or children as may then be deceased, in equal shares or parts, the issue of deceased children, however, to have and take only, such part or share of the principal as his or her deceased parent would have taken if living.

I further order and direct my Trustees that should my dear wife MARY E. MATHIEU, desire to occupy my city residence and my summer residence at Atlantic City or either or both of them, that she shall have the privilege of so occupying the same for and during the term of her natural life, without the same being required to be sold; should, however, my dear wife, in writing, desire that either or both of said premises be sold by my said Trustees and the proceeds therefrom invested, then I direct that the same shall be sold by my said Trustees and the proceeds therefrom invested for the purposes of this my Will.

V. I hereby declare that the payments of the income or interest whenever hereinafore directed to be made by my said Trustees or Trustee to my dear daughter, MABEL E. MILLER, are intended and shall be inalienable personal provisions for my said daughter, to whom the same shall be payable, and I direct that they shall not be anticipated, transferred, pledged or assigned, or made liable by any legal proceedings, or otherwise, for her debts, engagements or contracts or for that of any present or future husbands she may have but that said payments shall be made directly to my said daughter herein named and declared to be the beneficiary of said trust, and that her receipt alone shall be treated as a discharge to my said Trustees or Trustee for said payment of income.

VI. I hereby authorize and empower my Executors hereinafter named at any time after my decease, at their discretion, to sell and dispose of any part of my real estate at public or private sale for the best price that can be obtained for the same, and by proper deed or deeds of conveyance to grant, convey and assure the same unto the purchaser or purchasers thereof in fee simple free from all liability for or on account of the application of the purchase money, and free from all liens, debts, contracts or engagements whatsoever. And I further authorize and empower my said Trustees or Trustee, and the survivor and successor of them, at any time after my decease, at their discretion, to sell and dispose of any part of my real estate that may come into their hands or control, or that may become vested in them as the result of the management of my estate, either at public or private sale, for the best price that can be obtained for the same, and by proper deed or deeds of conveyance to grant, convey and assure the same unto the purchaser or purchasers thereof in fee simple free from all liability for or on account of the application of the purchase money, and free from all liens, debts, contracts or engagements whatsoever.

LASTLY: I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my dear wife, MARY E. MATHIEU, my daughter, MABEL E. MILLER, and THE PHILADELPHIA TRUST, SAFE DEPOSIT AND INSURANCE COMPANY, Executors of this my last will and Testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 6th day of August, A. D. One thousand nine hundred and nine (1909).
