I, Joseph Hoover, do hereby publish this codicil to my last will and testament, dated the 3rd day of September, A. D. 1909, as follows:

Item. As I have a strong desire that the concern of Joseph Hoover & Sons Company, which I have by my personal exertions and enterprize founded and established, shall be continued and carried on in my name and estate until it shall be firmly established upon an independent basis and free from liabilities, I hereby give, devise and bequeath seven hundred and eighty shares of the capital stock of said Joseph Hoover & Sons Company, unto my wife, Evelyn A. Hoover, and my two sons, Henry L. Hoover and Joseph W. Hoover, In Trust, for the period of five years, for and upon the following uses, intents and purposes, that is to say: In Trust to carry on, conduct and manage in their discretion, the business of Joseph Hoover & Sons Company, aforesaid, including the management and control of all issues, dividends, and profits and income thereof, and at their discretion to divide and pay the issues, dividends, income and profits derived from the said seven hundred and eighty shares of stock to my wife, Evelyn A. Hoover, one third thereof; and the remaining two-thirds to be divided equally among all my children, share and share alike; and at the expiration of the said term of five years, then I give, devise and bequeath one-third of the said shares of stock to my beloved wife, Evelyn A. Hoover, and the remaining two-thirds of said stock to all of my children, viz: Katharine E. Steward; Mary Douredoure; Agnes Holbrook; Eleanor Dunton, Henry L. Hoover, and Joseph W. Hoover, share and share alike, absolutely. It is also my desire that if any of my said children desire to dispose or sell any of the said stock, that the surviving children be given the right to purchase said stock at the market value.

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife, Evelyn A. Hoover, and my two sons, Henry L. Hoover and Joseph W. Hoover as Trustees for the purpose of carrying out the terms of this codicil.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal to this codicil this 27th day of January, A. D. Nineteen Thirteen.
