Fourth, I direct that my funeral shall be conducted as follows: My body is to be enclosed in a mahogany casket with glass cover, metallic sealed, to have cedar or mahogany case outside similar to the manner in which I had my dear husband buried. The Oliver H. Bair Company, whom I employed for my husband's funeral, if in business at the time of my decease, shall be employed to conduct my funeral. I desire to be buried from the Church of the Gesu, Eighteenth and Stiles Streets, Philadelphia. As I directed for my husband's funeral a solemn requiem mass at the said Church of the Gesu, I direct that a like service be held at my funeral, and that my body be interred next to my dear husband, in the lot known as the "Nead" lot, in Cathedral Cemetery, Philadelphia, which lot by my husband's will is now vested in me.
