

law or other reason, obtain said money, then the same shall revert to my estate and be divided with the rest, residue and remainder thereof.

7. I order and direct my Executor to set aside the sum of Three hundred ($300.) dollars a proper part of which shall be used to purchase and erect a tombstone over my grave and the balance shall be promptly placed in the Savings Department of the Atlantic City National Bank, in Atlantic City, N.J., at the best rate of interest and an amount not to exceed sixteen dollars be used annually to care for the lot and said grave.

8. All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, of each and every kind, and wherever situate, including all reversions, I do give, devise and bequeath unto my son, Charles G. Heckler.

9. And lastly I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said son Charles G. Heckler, sole executor of this, my last will, and I do direct that bonds to the amount of two thousand and five hundred ($2500.) dollars be required of him and which shall be sufficient security for the purposes and I request and direct that no other or further bonds be asked of him in this State or any other State or country, for any purpose whatsoever.

of my estate in such manner and upon such terms and at such price as in his judgment shall seem best and for so doing he shall not be questioned nor shall his judgment be appealed from. This last restriction is hereinafter as I believe my said son is the person most interested and best qualified to know.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this -Eighth- day of August, A.D. nineteen hundred and nineteen.

Henry Heckler (SEAL)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Henry Heckler, to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who were both present at the same time and who, at his request, subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the said Henry Heckler and the presence of each other, all on the day and in the year last mentioned in said will.
