

After the decease of my wife Annie Knight, I authorize and empower my trustees or the survivor of them, or the trustees or trustee for the time being of this will, if and whenever, in the settlement of my estate they deem it advisable, at their, his or her discretion, to sell the whole or any part of my real and personal property, not otherwise herein disposed of, at public or private sale, and to execute and deliver all deeds, instruments of transfer, and other writings necessary to pass a proper title thereto.

I hereby direct that my trustees or the survivor of them, or the trustees or trustee for the time being of this will, shall, before offering for sale my stock in the Paper Makers Chemical Company to any other person or persons, offer the same to my son Charles Herbert Knight for the sum of Three hundred dollars per share, or if the market value of the shares is less than three hundred dollars, then at a fair market value, as he has been largely instrumental in making the business a success, and I wish him to be in a position to continue the business if he so desires.

I nominate my wife Annie Knight, my daughter Annie Knight and my son Charles Herbert Knight to be the executors and trustees under this will, and I request that they may be exempt from giving a surety or sureties on their bonds as such executors or as such trustees.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my last will this eighth day of October 1910.

John Knight

On this eighth day of October 1910, the foregoing instrument was signed by the testator in the presence of us, who, at his request, and in his presence and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

H. A. Booth.

Geo. F. Borden.

S. B. Kieth.

I, John Knight, of Springfield, Hampden County, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, make this codicil to my last will heretofore made and published by me, and dated October 8, 1910, which will I hereby ratify and confirm in all respects save as the same may be changed by this instrument.

Whereas, by said will I directed that my trustees or the survivor of them, or the trustees or trustee for the time being of said will, shall, before offering for sale my stock in the Paper Makers Chemical Company to any other person or persons, offer the same to my son, Charles Herbert Knight, for the sum of three hundred dollars per share, or if the market value of the shares is less than three hundred dollars, then at a fair market value, I hereby revoke said directions and the clause in my said will pertaining thereto, and direct as follows:-

That my trustees or the survivor of them or the trustees or trustee for the time being of this codicil, shall, before offering for sale my common stock in the Paper Makers Chemical Company to any other person or persons, offer the same to my son Charles Herbert Knight for the sum of one hundred dollars per share, or if the market value of the shares is less than one hundred dollars, then at a fair market value, as he has been largely instrumental in making the business a success, and I wish him to be in a position to continue the business if he so desires.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be a codicil to my last will this twenty-second day of May, 1912.

John Knight

On this twenty-second day of May, 1912, the foregoing instrument was signed by the testator in the presence of us, who, at his request, and in his presence and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

H. A. Booth.
J. G. Gottesman
B. M. Sibley

I, John Knight of Ventnor in the State of New Jersey, being of sound and disposing mind and memory make this codicil to my last will heretofore made by me and dated October 8th 1910, which will, also one codicil dated May 22nd 1912, I hereby ratify and confirm in all respects save as the same may be changed by this instrument.

Whereas, by my said will I nominate my wife Annie Knight, my daughter Annie Knight and my son Charles Herbert Knight to be the executors and trustees under my said will, I hereby in addition to said three nominate my son-in-law Ralph R. French to be an executor and trustee, and I request that he as well as they be exempt from giving a surety or sureties on his bond as such executor or as such trustee.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be a codicil to my last will this sixth day of May 1913.

John Knight

On this sixth day of May 1913, the foregoing instrument was signed by the testator in the presence of us, who, at his request, and in his presence and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

H. A. Booth.

James H. Mulcar

R. H. Booth

I, John Knight of Ventnor in the State of New Jersey, being of sound and disposing mind and memory make this codicil to my last will heretofore made by me and dated October eighth, 1910, which will, also one codicil dated May twenty second 1912, and one dated May sixth, 1913, I hereby ratify and confirm in all respects save as the same may be changed by this instrument.

Whereas by my said will I gave the sum of three thousand dollars to my trustees, in trust, to pay the income of same to an institution in England toward the maintenance of my son George Knight, and after his decease said sum to be paid to the institution which last has the care of him, I do hereby revoke both of said provisions, my said son George Knight having lately deceased, and I hereby direct that said sum of three thousand dollars shall be placed in the residuum of my estate and pass under the residuary clause in my said will.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be a codicil to my last will this Tenth day of June 1915.

John Knight

On this tenth day of June 1915, the foregoing instrument was signed by the testator in the presence of us, who, at his request, and in his presence and in the presence of