BY THE TENOR OF THESE PRESENTS,

I, A. Harry Clayton, Deputy, Register for the Probate of Wills and Granting Letters of administration, in and for the county of Bucks, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,

DO MAKE KNOWN UNTO ALL MEN, that on the day of the date hereof, at Bucks County, before, me, was proved and approved the Last Will and Testament of Francis L. Worthington late of the Borough of Doylestown, in said County of Bucks, Penna., Deceased, (a true copy whereof is to these presents annexed), who having, whilst he lived, and at the time of his death, divers, goods, chattels and credits, within the said Commonwealth, by reason whereof, the approbation and insinuation in the Last Will and Testament and the committing the administration of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits, which were of the said deceased, and also the auditing the accounts, calculations and reckonings of the said administration, and final dismissal from the same, to me are known to belong, and that administration of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, in any way concerning his Last Will and Testament, was committed to Harr J. Worthington, William P. Ely and J. Kirk Leatherman, the executors in the said testament named they having been first duly qualified well and truly to administer the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, and make a true and perfect inventory thereof, and exhibit the same into the Register's Office of the said County within thirty days from the date hereof; And also, a true and just account, calculation and reckoning of their administration, at the said office to render within one year from the date hereof, or when legally thereunto required.

(SEAL) IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office, at Doylestown, the thirtieth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

A. Harry Clayton
Deputy Register of Wills.
