

being duly sworn according to law upon his oath deposes and says that he saw Charles Mench, the said testator sign and seal the said annexed writing and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be his last will and testament.

Deponent further says that at the time of the doing thereof the said testator was over the age of twenty-one years, of sound and disposing mind and memory and not under any restraint, so far as deponent knows and as he verily believes; and that Philip S. Steelman and William Boice, the other subscribing witnesses to the said will were present at the ^{same} time with deponent when the said will was signed by the said testator and by him published and declared as and for his last will and testament, as aforesaid, and that the said Philip S. Steelman and William Boice and deponent subscribed their names to said will as witnesses at the request of and in the presence of the said testator and in the presence of each other.

ATLANTIC COUNTY SURROGATE'S COURT.

In the matter of the Probate of the) Last Will and Testament of) ORDER FOR PROBATE.
Charles Mench, deceased.)

It appearing from the petition of Eliza Mench, filed herein, that Charles Mench, late of the Borough of Linwood, in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, died on or about the twentieth day of January, 1921, and more than ten days ago, having first duly made and executed a paper writing purporting to be his last Will and Testament in and by which he failed to appoint an executor thereof, and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances, taken proof, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the Will produced, the validity of its execution, and the competency of the testator, and no caveat against the probate of the said Will having been filed and the said Eliza Mench, being in my judgment a fit person to administer the estate of the said testator.

It is on this Eleventh day of February, 1921, adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last Will and Testament of the said Charles Mench, deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate, and it is ordered that Letters of Administration with the Will Annexed be issued thereon to the said Eliza Mench, upon the giving by her of a bond, as required by law.

Albert C. Abbott,
Surrogate.

ATLANTIC COUNTY SURROGATE'S COURT.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,) COUNTY OF ATLANTIC.)

To all to Whom these Presents Shall Come, GREETING:

WHEREAS, CHARLES MENCH, late of the County of Atlantic, in the State of New Jersey, departed this life, having made and executed a last will and testament, which has been duly proved, according to law, before the Surrogate of the County of Atlantic; and

WHEREAS, the said Testator failed to appoint any Executor thereof; therefore,

I, ALBERT C. ABBOTT, Surrogate of the County of Atlantic, do hereby appoint ELIZA MENCH, Administratrix of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, who is duly authorized to administer the same agreeably to said will.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of (SEAL) office, this Eleventh day of February, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

Albert C. Abbott,
Surrogate.

LETTERS TESTAMENTARY

By the tenor of these presents, I, DAVID MARTIN, Register for the Probate of Wills and Granting Letters of Administration in (SEAL) and for the City and County of Philadelphia, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

DO MAKE KNOWN TO ALL MEN that on the 30th day of October, A.D. 1911, at Philadelphia, before me, was proved and approved the last Will and Testament of John Moore deceased (a true copy whereof is to these presents annexed), having whilst he lived at the time of his death, divers Goods, Chattels, Rights and Credits, within the said Commonwealth by reason whereof the approbation and insinuation of said last Will and Testament, and the committing administration of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, Rights and Credits, which were of the said deceased; and also the auditing the accounts, calculations and reckonings of the said administration and absolute care of the same, to me are manifestly known to belong; and that administration of all and singular the goods, chattels, rights and credits of said deceased any way concerning his last Will and Testament, is committed to John G. Moore and William W. Moore Executors in the said testament named; they having first been duly sworn well and truly to administer the goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, and make a true and perfect inventory thereof and exhibit the same into the Register's Office of Philadelphia, on or before the 30th day of November next, and to render a just and true account, calculation and reckoning of the said administration, on or before the 30th day of October one thousand nine hundred and twelve (1912) or when thereunto legally required; and also to diligently and faithfully regard and well and truly comply with the provisions of the act relating to Collateral Inheritance.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office, at
