

estate, both real and personal, to my three daughters, Edna Burns, Bessie Jackson and Mabel Jackson, in equal shares, share and share alike, and I further direct that in the event of the death of any one of my said daughters before my death, that her one-third share of my ^{said} estate shall be equally divided between the surviving daughter or daughters.

The foregoing devise and bequest to my said wife is hereby made to be by her received in lieu of her dower in my estate.

Third: I do hereby constitute and appoint my said wife, Clara Jackson, and my said daughter, Mabel Jackson, executrices of this my last will and testament, and I do hereby give to my said executrices, and to the survivors, or survivor of them, full power and authority to grant, bargain, sell and convey any or all my lands to any person or persons, in fee simple, or otherwise, at public or private sale at such times and upon such terms as they, my said executrices, shall think fit.

I further direct that my said executrices shall not be required to furnish bond for the faithful performance of their duties under this will.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this Fifth day of April, A. D. Nineteen hundred and eighteen.

Samuel Jackson (SEAL)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Samuel Jackson to be his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who were present at the same time, and at his request subscribed our names as witnesses, in the presence of said testator and of each other.

ATLANTIC COUNTY SURROGATE'S COURT.

In the matter of the Probate of the Last Will) and Testament of Samuel Jackson, deceased.) ORDER FOR PROBATE.

Application having been made to me by Clara Jackson, one of the executrices named in the last will and testament of Samuel Jackson, late of Ventnor City, in the County of Atlantic, and State of New Jersey, deceased, for probate of the said will and testament and letters testamentary thereon, and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken the proofs, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the said will, produced, the validity of its execution, and the competency of the testator, and the probate of the said will not being contested and it appearing that the testator died more than ten days ago: February 2nd, 1921.

It is on this Twelfth day of March, A.D. 1921, adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is established as the last will and testament of Samuel Jackson, deceased, and same is hereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to Clara Jackson, one of the executrices named in the said will who may qualify thereunder.
