In the matter of the estate } Bond of Alice Irene Stark deceased }

Know all men by these Presents, That we John J. Stark, Richard S. Jeffries and William W. Force of the Township of Egg Harbor in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, are held and firmly bound unto the Clerk or Surrogate General of the said State of New Jersey in the sum of one hundred dollars lawful money of the United States, to be paid unto the said, The Clerk or Surrogate General as aforesaid, his successors or assigns, to which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals and dated the Fifth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seven. The condition of this obligation is such that if the above bounden John J. Stark administrator of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of Alice Irene Stark deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of the said John J. Stark or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for the said John J. Stark and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the registry of the Prerogative Court in the Secretary's office of this State or into the Surrogate's office of the County of Atlantic, at or before the expiration of three calendar months from the date of the above written obligation, and the same goods, chattels and credits, and all other goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased at the time of her death which at any time after shall come into the hands or possession of the said John J. Stark, or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for the said John J. Stark do well and truly administer according to law, and further do make or cause to be made a just and true account of his administration within twelve calendar months from the date of the above written obligation; and all the rest and residue of the said goods, chattels and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration, the same being first examined and allowed by the Judges of the Orphans' Court of the county, or other competent authority, shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as is, are or shall by law be entitled to receive the same, and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will or testament was made by the said deceased, and the executor or executors therein named, or any other person or persons do exhibit the same into the said Prerogative Court or the Surrogate's office of the County of Atlantic, making a request to have it allowed and approved, if the said John J. Stark being thereunto required, do render and deliver the said letters of administration (approbation of such testament being first had and made) to the said Court, then the above obligation to be void and of none effect, or else to remain in full force and virtue.
