Decease.

John H. Weaver, Jr., one of the children of John H. Weaver, late of Atlantic City, in the County of Atlantic, and State of New Jersey, deceased, having presented his petition of appeal from and order of the surrogate of the County of Atlantic, made on the first day of November, A.D. nineteen hundred and six, admitting to probate a certain paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of the said John H. Weaver, deceased, and granting letters testamentary thereon to Laura Weaver, the executrix therein named, and it appearing that citations were thereupon duly issued to all persons interested in the aforesaid probate proceedings, before the said surrogate, to appear before this Court, at May's Landing, New Jersey, on the nineteenth day of June, A.D. nineteen hundred and seven, on the hearing of the said appeal; and it further appearing that said citations have been returned duly served upon the persons to whom they were respectively directed; and the said hearing on the said appeal having been continued by an order of this Court, from the nineteenth day of June, A.D. nineteen hundred and seven, to the seventeenth day of July, A.D. nineteen hundred and seven, and having been further continued by a further order of this Court from the seventeenth day of July, A.D. nineteen hundred and seven, to the Eighteenth day of December A.D. nineteen hundred and seven, and the hearing of the said appeal coming on to be heard before this Court on the day last aforesaid, in the presence of Garrison and Voorhees Proctors of the appellant, John H. Weaver, Jr., and Edward Dudley, Proctor of the respondent, Laura Weaver, executrix under the last will and testament of John H. Weaver, deceased, and the testimony of the parties having been taken before the Court, and the Court having heard the allegations of the parties, and due deliberation being had thereon:

It is thereupon on this Eighteenth day of December, A.D. nineteen hundred and seven, ordered, adjudged and decreed that the aforesaid paper writing, is the last will and testament of the said John H. Weaver, deceased, and that the order made by the said surrogate on the First day of November, A.D. nineteen hundred and six, admitting the same to probate, as and for the last will and testament of the said John H. Weaver, deceased, and directing that letters testamentary thereon be issued to the said Laura Weaver, be and the same is hereby, in all respects, affirmed, and that the said petition of appeal be and the same is hereby dismissed.

And it is further ordered that the words, "I leave to my son J. H. Weaver, Jr., $5 Dollars and also leave to Geo. W. Weaver $50 Dollars - J. H. Weaver, Sr." which appear on the aforesaid paper writing after the signature of the testator, and the signatures of the subscribing witnesses thereto, shall be considered as no part of the said last will and testament of the said John H. Weaver, deceased, and it is further ordered that a counsel for
