In the matter of the Estate of Enoch B. Scull, deceased. Order for partial distribution.

The first account of Abigail D. Scull and Hattie C. Scull, executrices of the last will of Enoch B. Scull, deceased, having been duly filed, exhibiting a balance of one hundred and fifty-one thousand, four hundred and sixty-eight dollars and seventy cents of the said estate in their hands up to the first day of May, nineteen hundred and nine, of which a considerable sum is in cash, and said account having been duly allowed by the court and it appearing that the said Enoch B. Scull, deceased, by and by his last will directed that all of the rest, residue and remainder of his estate after payment of his debts and the expenses or settlement of the estate should be given one-third to his widow, Abigail D. Scull, and the remaining two-thirds to his children, Almira Scull, May, Sarah A. Scull, Hattie C. Scull and Laura Scull share and share alike; and the court having heard William M. Livingston, proctor for the executrices and Abigail D. Scull, Hattie C. Scull, Sarah Scull and Laura Scull, legatees and John Boyd Shaw, proctor for Almira Scull, May, and being of the opinion that all of the cash on hand with the exception of sufficient to pay the five thousand dollar note on which the estate is liable to the Atlantic Safe Deposit and Trust Company, should be distributed and it further appearing that due notice of this application has been waived by the parties in interest:

It is therefore on this twenty-seventh day of July, nineteen hundred and nine ordered as follows:

1. That William M. Livingston, counsel for the executrices be allowed the sum of one thousand dollars for his services in addition to the sums already paid to him by the executrices and set forth in their account, in settlement of his services rendered up to and including the filing of this account.
2. That the executrices be allowed a commission of three per cent on fifty one thousand dollars the amount to be distributed on this accounting, and that the amount of commissions to be paid to said executrices on the balance of the estate undistributed, be reserved until the next accounting.
3. That in addition to the one-tenth of one per cent on one hundred and fifty six thousand, four hundred and seven dollars and ninety-one cents, (No. 407.91) as shown by the said account, there be paid to the surrogate of the County of Atlantic, the sum of one hundred dollars as and for a further allowance to him for his services for auditing, stating and reporting the said account.
4. That the sum of fifty one thousand dollars in cash be distributed by the executrices in accordance with the terms of the last will and testament of the said Enoch B. Scull, deceased, to wit: One-third thereof, or seventeen thousand dollars to Abigail D. Scull, one-sixth thereof, or eight thousand five hundred dollars to Sarah A. Scull first deducting therefrom five thousand dollars paid to her on the first day of June, nineteen hundred and nine, one-sixth thereof, or eight thousand five hundred dollars to Hattie C. Scull, one-sixth thereof, or eight thousand five hundred dollars to Laura Scull and one-sixth thereof, or eight thousand five hundred dollars to Almira Scull, May, first deducting therefrom three thousand dollars paid to her on the twenty-fifth day of March, nineteen hundred and nine.
5. That with the exception of the allowance of the exemption of two hundred dollars to the widow, Abigail D. Scull, the account for said is allowed and stated as filed.

In pursuance of an order of this court made in the above matter on the sixteenth day of June, nineteen hundred and nine, directing the subscriber, administrator of the estate of David Cottrell, Deceased, to sell certain lands in the said order particularly delineated and described, do hereby report that I did give notice that the said lands and premises would be exposed to sale at public vendue on Saturday, the thirty-first day of July, nineteen hundred and nine, at two o'clock in the afternoon, upon the said premises, by public notices signed by myself and set up at five or more public places in the County of Atlantic, one whereof was in the town of Hammonton in which the said real estate is situate, at least four weeks before the time appointed for selling the same, and also by publishing said notice in the Mail Landing Record and Atlantic Review two of the newspapers printed and published in the said County of Atlantic in which the said real estate is situate, one of which was a newspaper published in the town of Mail Landing, the County seat of Atlantic County, for four weeks successively, once in each week preceding the time appointed for the said sale.

And I further report that at the time and place so appointed and advertised I did expose the said lands and premises to sale at public vendue to the highest bidder, and Mary W. Cottrell then and there bidding for the same sum of $1500.00, six hundred dollars said premises being sold subject to a mortgage for $1000.00 and no one else bidding so much or more for the same, the said tract of land and premises was thereupon struck off and sold by me to the said Mary W. Cottrell at the price aforesaid.

Respectfully submitted this third day of August, A. D. 1909.
