Louis Du Hadway
Notary Public

Mary Frances Horner

My commission expires January 17, 1913.
State of Pennsylvania
County of Philadelphia, ss

I, Henry F. Walton, Prothonotary of the County of Philadelphia and Clerk of the Courts of Common Pleas of said County, which are Courts of Record having a Common seal, being the officer authorized by the laws of the State of Pennsylvania to make the following certificate, do certify, that Louis Du Hadway, Esquire, before whom the aforesaid affidavit was made, was at the time of so doing a Notary Public for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, residing in the County of Philadelphia, duly commissioned and qualified to administer oaths and affirmations and to take acknowledgments and proofs of deeds or conveyances for lands, tenements, and hereditaments to be recorded in said State of Pennsylvania and to all whose acts, as such, full faith and credit are and ought to be given, as well in Courts of Judicature, as elsewhere; and that I am well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Notary Public and verify believe his signature thereto is genuine, and that said oath or affirmation supports the facts taken in all respects as required by the laws of the State of Pennsylvania.

My testimony whereof, I have hereto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court, this 15th day of Nov in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twelve (1912)

Henry F. Walton

Atlantic County Orphans' Court
In the matter of the estate of Calvin B. Horner, who died testate } Decree of Insolvency &c.

The said Mary Frances Horner, executrix of the estate of Calvin B. Horner deceased, having presented to this court a report of the claims and demands exhibited against the said estate, within the time heretofore limited, and an account of the moneys, goods, chattels, rights, credits, and an inventory of the real estate of the decedent with the valuation thereof; and due notice to the creditors to exhibit their claims, and of the making of said report, and of an application for a decree adjudging the said estate to be insolvent, having been given by the said executrix pursuant to the order of this court and the statute, and it appearing that the said claims and demands and account have not been accepted to, and upon consideration of the amount of the personal and real estate, and the value thereof, it appearing that the real and personal estate is insufficient to pay the debts, and the estate is likely to be insolvent, it is so decreed, and it is ordered and directed, that the said executrix proceed as if the estate were insolvent, and to make sale of the whole or any part of the said real estate from time to time as may appear expedient, according to law, upon her first giving bond as by statute required.
