

This cause coming on to be heard at the June Term one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and being argued by John J. Crandall, counsel for the appellants, and Grey and Archer, counsel for the respondent, and the Court having taken time to consider the same, and being of the opinion that the decree of the Chancellor should be affirmed in all things-

It is now, on this Eighteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the decree of the Prerogative Court be in all things affirmed with costs; and that the record and proceedings be remitted to the Prerogative Court, to be therein proceeded on according to law and the practice of said Court.

On Motion of

Grey and Archer,

Solicitors and of Counsel for Respondent.

In the Matter of Thomas) Petition for confirmation of sale of lands at Private Sale
J. Sullivan, deceased. ) to pay debts.

Petition of Minnie) Sullivan, Administratrix, of the estate of the above decedant respectfully shows:-

(1.) That on the ninth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirteen, an order was made in this Court, directing your petitioner to sell certain lands of said decedant in the said order practically designated and described in order to pay debts of said decedant

(2) That in pursuance of said order, the petitioner gave notice that the said lands and premises would be exposed to sale at public vendue on the sixteenth day of August, nineteen hundred and thirteen at three o'clock in the afternoon upon the said premises. Said notices, being public notices signed by your petitioner and set up at five or more public places in the County of Atlantic one whereof was in the City of Atlantic City, in which said real estate is situated at least four weeks before the time appointed for selling the same and also by publishing said notices in the Atlantic City Daily Press and the Atlantic City Review, two of the newspapers printed and published in the City of Atlantic City, the principal City of said County of Atlantic for four weeks successively, once in each week next preceding the time appointed for said sale.

(3) That at the time and place so appointed and advertised your petitioner was present prepared to sell but was unable to obtain any bids, whatsoever for the said premises.

(4) That thereupon, your petitioner adjourned said said sale until the thirtieth day of August, nineteen hundred and thirteen at the hour of three o'clock in the afternoon and publicly advertised said adjournment.

(5) That at that time and place your petitioner was present but again was unable to obtain any bids for said property.

(6) That since that time and until sometime within the last four weeks, your petitioner has endeavored to obtain a purchaser for said premises but without any success.

(7) That within the last four weeks, your petitioner instructed the N. E. Young Company
