A LECTURE
To Young Men.

Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope, Price 6 cts.
A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment, and Radical cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhoea, Induced by Self-Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility and Impediments to Marriage generally (Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c.)—By ROBERT J. CULVER-WELL, M. D., author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, by the use of his "Green Book," or cure, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Step by Step.
Written in the interest of the "Atlantic County Temperance Alliance."

BY MRS. A. V. MUNGER.

Step by step, be it ever so slow,
Something we gain or lose as we go;
We may rise, or may fall, just as we will,
'Tis a law of nature, we may not stand still.

Carelessly down the river of Time, A floating wreck, mild driftwood and slime;
If you make no effort to stem the tide, It will bear you down to the cess pool wide.

Step by step, even the best may fall,
For the downward road is open to all;
And so gradual is the course you take,
You will never notice the change you make

Until you are borne so far each day, You cannot again retrace your way; Thus we grow weary and tempest tossed, Thus many a soul to Christ is lost.

Step by step, though but little at first,
The more rapid strides belong to the worst; Little by little we sin again, It leaves its impression on heart and brain.

The voice of conscience becomes less clear, Until its warning we cease to hear;
We grow to think less of what is right, And the soul sinks down in eternal night.

Would you shun the evil? Listen boys, Be careful how you select your joys; Remember 'tis when you first begin, Before you acquire a taste for sin.

When the wine glows red within the cup, Before it has eaten your honor up;
When the tempting puff of the sweet elgar, Is wafted along on the breeze afar,

And the flaming signboard calls you in,
Beware! 'tis the first approach of sin;
And they who seek to entice you there, Are helping to spread the Devil's snare.

Now do not say this does not hit you,
You know and feel that my words are true;
And the only way to resist the tide,
Is to bravely pass on the other side.

For 'tis only a step from wrong to right, Only a step from darkness to light;
So easy to take, so hard to reclaim,
Is a soul once lost to the sense of shame.

Step by step, be it ever so slow,
Something we gain or lose as we go;
We may rise, or may fall, just as we will,
'Tis a law of nature, we may not stand still.

Hammoncton, Jan. 27th, '80.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26, 1880.

The Republican party of Pennsylvania seems likely to declare itself independent of ring rule, and there is great rejoicing among Republicans here. The Camerons have never been beaten in their party Conventions there but they called the State Convention earlier than the party thought proper, in order to force it to instruct the delegation to Chicago to vote for General Grant. While Republicans have no fault to find with General Grant, they are desirous of a fair and free contest, and they look with complacency upon the reports that the Republicans of Pennsylvania reject Cameron's advice, and will act their own pleasure. It is feared by many that the actions of the Camerons has injured General Grant's chances.

Senator Padlock of Nebraska, is a good representative of his State and section. He is now looking sharply after the interests of those who go out to settle on the public lands, having introduced four bills for protecting and regulating their entering and sale.

The women's rights people are here trying to get Congress to recommend a 16th amendment in favor of woman's suffrage. They are also urging to have delegations to all the party National Conventions this fall, and promise to support those candidates who favor their ideas.
Probably their influence will not be heavy.

Senator Blaine is momentarily expected here, and then we shall hear from the great Republican leader himself the facts about the fight in Maine. He has won a great victory there over a desperate gang of rascals, and the whole party honor him for it.

It begins to appear that the fault lies with Commissioner. Evidently himself for the tardiness in the work of the Pension Office, and great fault is found with him. The best judges assert that he has been all the time calling for more legislation and more help to cover up his inefficiency as an executive officer. He is one of Secretary Schurz's pets, and it is therefore difficult to effect any change, but leading Republicans now declare that he is a very expensive luxury.

The Emigration Society here reports that they have letters from Indiana, and other retreats of the colored men, who have fled from North Carolina, and they are very favorable. None of them want to return South, and they write continually for other friends to follow them.
Senator Voorhees will get all he wants of this kind of information.

The long term feature of the bond proposed by Mr. Wood does not meet the favor with which the 34 per cent. feature does. While the House Committee on Ways and Means, and in fact a majority of the members of the House believe in a 25 per cent., they favor a 30 year bond rather than one to run 50 years. It is probable that the 30 year bond will prevail.
MAXWELL

Mr. Editor:—

Thinking it might be interesting to your numerous readers to know who think that a rumbolic in the town of Absecon will conduce to the public good, and that Elmer Murphy is a proper person to keep such a house, as they certify by signing his application for license, that he is of good repute for honesty and temperance, I send you the list of their names.

H. S. LAKE.

The following are the names of those who signed Mr. Murphy's application, and those marked thus * are members of the M. E. Church: Thomas Clark*, Wesley Leeds, Job Chamberlain*, Aaron Steelman*, Daniel Walters, Wesley C. Smith, Richard Doughty, Enoch C. Champion, Daniel Johnson, William Alexander, liam Hackett, Frederic C. Boice.

It having just come to my knowledge that a report has been widely circulated charging that I had been arrested and imprisoned upon a charge of forgery, which report has given great pain and trouble to my aged and beloved father, and to other members of my family: being solemnly sworn I do depose and say: that said report is wholly and in every particular false and untrue; that I have never in my life been arrested or imprisoned, or been threatened with arrest, upon the charge of forgery, or upon any other charge whatsoever; and that any report to the contrary is an infamous slander.

would give the people better papers, and Some of the legal aspirants at Freehold have been playing some very practical jokes on one of their toney young associates. Letters have been written and answers received from the toney young man, and finally an assignation entered into with what Toney supposed to be an indiscreet but highly respectable young lady of Jerseyville, whereupon Toney drove down and met in the dark what he supposed to be the young lady, to whom he addressed his endearing words, and, receiving no answer, asked her in a plaintive, solicitous manner, "why so still?" whereupon a whole platoon broke out in a roar of laughter. Then, to his great horror and surprise he found he had been caressing a dummy woman in the presence of his numerous associates. It is said he did not tarry long in Jerseyville that evening. Boys, you are very naughty to play such tricks on your young and impulsive associates.—Shore Press.

The monster-Italian-doubtful tarred-iron-clad Duilio, the most powerful war vessel in the world, in a trial of her speed on Jan. 10th, gave fourteen miles per hour, working at sixsevenths of her full capacity. It is expected that she will eventually attain a speed of fifteen miles per hour. Her performance greatly exceeds the recent estimates, and is regarded as highly satisfactory. The dimensions of the Duilio are length, 339 feet, and breadth, 65 feet. Her displacement or tonnage is 10,659 tons. The thickness of her armour is 22 inches throughout. Her hull is altogether of iron and steel, and her engines are of 7500 horse-power.
The armament of the Duilio consists of four 100-ton Armstrong guns, 33 feet long, firing projectiles 2300 pounds in weight, with powder charges of 350 pounds. She has also a powerful ram, and at the stern a torpedo boat.

When Thomas Buchanan Read was in London during the first year of the Civil War, he was invited one evening to meet Mr. Tennyson.
As soon as they were introduced the Englishman began to speak of the war, saying: "I have had much sympathy with your country, Mr. Read; but I have withdrawn my sympathy now. I feel bound to tell you that your country is going to perdition, and I don't mind it, either. England, Mr. Read, is not with the North in this barbarous struggle." Read, nettled by such rudeness, determined to be rude in return, and retorted thus: "You need not disturb yourself, Mr. Tennyson, about my country. It can get on perfectly well without England or English sympathy. We intend to do our own fighting. You're giving yourself unnecessary uneasiness. To be plain, Mr.
Tennyson, we Americans of the North don't care a—about you Englishmen, and the sooner you learn it the more trouble you will be saved." "My rudeness," remarked Read, "seemed to please Tennyson. He was very polite and kind after my explosion, treating me for the remainder of the evening with distinguished consideration."

Rooms are never hung up and are soon spoiled.

Nice handled knives are thrown into hot water.

Clothes are left on the line to whip to pieces in the wind.

Tubs and barrels are left in the sun to dry and fall apart.

Dried fruits are not taken care of in season and become wormy.

Rags, strings and paper are thrown into the Pork spoils for want of salt, and beef because the brine wants scalding.

Coffee, tea, pepper and spices are left to

It is the poorest method of economy when a man refuses to subscribe to his local paper on the plea that he subscribes to one or another of the great metropolitan dailies. "He might as well" says an exchange, "say that he cannot afford bread because he intends having sponge cake." All the while the local paper is going on working for the benefit of the community in which he resides, and, of course himself with the rest, without his support. This is not the sort of usage the publisher has a right to expect, and, of which, of right, belongs to him. have to be ex-er-cised in rightly plac-ing his means, and in the judicious em-ploy-ment of men to insure him against the loss of what he has already accumulated. When the contract is made between the man of means and a day laborer, the laborer assumes no liability for loss and accounts for no failures. Now the unjust accusation that is often brought against the employer, that in his selfishness he grinds his men down to the last cent in order to increase faster his own profits is no more apt to be true than that the self-ishness of a few employ-ees may stand in the way of a number of willing, honest, hardworking men that are making a de-cent living for themselves and their fami-

CUMBERLAND MUTUAL

Fire Insurance Comp'ny.

BRIDGETON, N. J.

Conducted on strictly mutual principles, offering a perfectly safe insurance for just what it may cost to pay losses and expenses. The proportion of loss to the amount insured being very small, and expenses much less than usually had, nothing can be offered more favorable to the insured. The cost being about ten cents on the hundred dollars per year to the insurers on ordinary risks, and from fifteen to twenty-five cents per year on hazardous properties, which is less than one-third of the rates charged by stock companies, on such risks—the other two-thirds taken by stock companies being a profit accruing to stockholders, or consumed in expenses of the companies.

The guarantee fund of premium notes being now Three Millions of Dollars.

If an assessment had to be made of five per cent. only, twice within the ten years for which the policy is issued, it would yet be cheaper to the members than any other insurance offered. And that large amount of money is saved to the members and kept at home. No assessment having ever been made, being now more than thirty years, that saving would amount to more than

One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars

The Losses by Lightning.

Where the property is not set on fire, being less than one cent per year to each member, are paid without extra charge, and extended so as to cover all policies that are issued and outstanding.

PURE JUICE

of the Angelica Grape of California. As a remedy in Dyspepsia, and Disorder arising therefrom, is unsurpassed. It may be had of Mr. Seaman of the HAMMONTON HOUSE.

MUST!

Above product, our "specialty," is the pure unadulterated juice of the grape as it leaves the press, and equivalent to this delicious fruit in liquid form. Possessing no alcoholic properties, it is invaluable to Invalids, Temperance people and Churches for Sacramental purposes. Our "MUST" must not be mistaken for other so called unfermented wines, as it is not boiled and hermetically sealed to keep it from spoiling. The only "Process" resort to by us is to permanently stop fermentation, which naturally must result in the juice remaining as it grew.

The undersigned are now disposing of their new stock prepared from their last grape crop, and warrant that it will keep without special care.
