High School Graduating Class.

The Class of 1906 is composed of eight members, equally divided as to sex, as follows:

Kathryn Berry
John A. Birdsall
Ina Blake
James W. Cottrell
George H. Greis
Mabel Small
Harry Lea Smith
Mamie Werner.

This will be the first class graduated in the four years High School Course, and the first since the Hammonton
school was placed in the approved list by State authority.

The class of 1907 contains twenty members, and we hope that every one of them will complete the course.
They will never regret it.

St. Mark's Day, Wednesday, April 25th, will long be remembered by the parishioners and friends of Saint Mark's Church, it being the visitation of Bishop Scarborough, who confirmed one of the largest classes that have ever been confirmed in the Parish. After the services, the large congregation adjourned to the Parish House, where an informal reception was held by the Bishop. The reception had additional interest, as it was also the Bishop's seventy-fifth birthday. After the people had expressed their good wishes,
the Rector, in a few well-chosen words, presented to the Bishop, on behalf of the Parish, a very handsome cut glass loving cup. The Bishop accepted it in a short speech, in his usual happy vein,
after which refreshments were served,
and social intercourse became general.

Hammonton talent is as modest as the violet. Wait till that entertainment comes, and some new stars besides those composing our band will shine on the local stage. You don't believe it, eh? Well, wait. But don't miss the greatest show ever given in Jersey.
Some persons want to get in at every rehearsal, but we hear that strict engagements have been made that some of the star performers shall be required to rehearse in private. Date will be announced in next issue. Everybody will want to see a great Fourth, and the proceeds of the entertainment will be given to the celebration.

Who does not honor the flag of this Nation? No American, at least. And the world, too, for that which it typifies. Let our next celebration of Independence Day be great and proud, glorious and joyous! It will be. All can help. Would the ladies learn how? Perhaps a very entertaining reception in the near future will give them an opportunity of surprising themselves, and the men. More of this in our next.

Prudential Benefits.

The benefits which have come to New Jersey people through the fact that "The Prudential" is a New Jersey institution are shown by the statement that nearly 18 million dollars have been paid by the company to residents of this State, and that now more than 900,000 policies are held in the Prudential by Jersey people.

The Prudential wrote more new business, and paid more claims in New Jersey, last year, than any other Company operating in this state. In purely voluntary concessions alone (that is, dividends, etc., granted, which were not provided for in the policyholders' contracts), Jersey people have benefitted to the extent of over one million dollars.

These figures show that the Prudential is of great value as a source of wealth to the State; and it is also of importance in other respects. A great life insurance company is something more than an indemnifier against risks; it is incidentally a great investor, a great employer of labor, and a great source of revenue to both city and state. Figures showing Prudential's status in these various aspects are given.

The amount loaned on bond and mortgage is over $6,000,000. It funds a livelihood for between three and four thousand New Jersey people, who have dependents representing perhaps two or three times that number. As a tax-payer, the Prudential has paid to the state $2,800,000, which somebody would have had to pay if this company had not located in New Jersey. This leaves out of account the reduction of taxation caused by the decrease of public burdens since the introduction of Industrial Life Insurance.

Prudential carries over $155,000,000 of paid-for life insurance on the lives of New Jersey people, which is the best evidence of the confidence held by the citizens of the state in that great institution.

Elm Items.

On Thursday evening, a surprise party was given to William Holtz. After all had assembled, solos were rendered by Mrs. Chapman; also recitations by Misses Clara Priestley and Annie Jones. Refreshments were served, and enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Holtz, Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan, Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Matlack, Misses Annie Forman, Annie Jones, Clara Priestley, Edna Cordrey, Edna Hong, Florence Holtz, Helen Flanagan, also Walter Forman, Elmer Priestley, Jack Super, Fred Holtz, Leonard Flanagan, and Howard Holtz.

Harry Nickerson spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Wilmington, Delaware.

While driving from Winslow to Elm, over the Pike, which is being graveled, William Flanagan's horse tripped over a stake, that had been left sticking up, and was thrown on its head, remaining but partly conscious for some time, but was finally gotten to his feet and with difficulty led home. Mr. Flanagan was thrown from the carriage, but not much hurt.

The last weekly meeting of the Bob White Club was held on Wednesday evening, at the home of Miss Carrie Fitting, Pine Road. All present had an excellent time.

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS
The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it "is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation."

We are of the opinion that this allegation is most clearly and accurately described in the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the Dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition; and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference.
