IN MEMORIAM.
At a meeting of Shaumunkin Tribe, No. 57, I. O. R. M., held on Tuesday's sleep, First Flower Moon, G. S. D. 415, it was resolved to draw up suitable resolutions of respect and condolence on the death of Bro. John Riebel:
WHEREAS, It has pleased the Great Spirit in his divine wisdom to remove from our midst, to the happy hunting grounds above, our beloved brother John Riebel; therefore I do it.
Resolved, That, while bowing to the will of the Great Spirit in removing our beloved brother from among us, yet we deeply deplore his loss to our Tribe, and join our sorrow with that of his family and friends in this bereavement. As a brother and a member of this Tribe, he won the love and respect of all; and in his passing away our Tribe has lost one of its most useful and enterprising citizens.
Resolved, That the Charter of the Tribe be draped in mourning for one month, and these resolutions be spread in full on the speaking books of the Tribe, a copy thereof also to be tendered the family of deceased brother, and to each of the newspapers of Hammonton.
Resolved, That we tender to the family and friends of our beloved brother sympathy and condolence in their severe affliction; and may the Great Spirit guide and assist them to become reconciled to their loss, and enable them to bear their bereavement with the trust that they will meet again in the world above.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for canned oil, which ought to cost but 60 cents a gallon. Ready mixed paint is half oil and half paint. Buy oil fresh from the barrel and add it to the L & M Paint which is semi-mixed.
When you buy L & M Paint you get a full gallon of paint that won't wear off for 10 or 15 years, because L & M Zinc hardens the L & M White Lead and makes L & M paint wear like iron.
4 gallons L & M mixed with 3 gallons flamed oil will paint a moderate sized house.
L & M costs only $1.20 per gallon.
Sold in the north, east, south and west.
O. B. Andrews, ex Mayor, Danbury, Conn., writes: "Painted my house 19 years ago with L & M. Looks well today."

Mrs. Estella Jennie Mitchell, widow of the late Horace P. Mitchell, and daughter of Mrs. T. B. Brown, died on Saturday, April 28th, at her home in Philadelphia, aged 48 years. Service was held at the house on Sunday afternoon. Her remains were brought to Hammonton and laid beside those of her father, in Greenmount Cemetery. Service at the grave conducted by Rev. Paul F. Hoffmann. A son and daughter are among the mourners.

A letter written from San Francisco by Law Colwell, Apr. 22nd, leaves him in good shape. He says: "I am in the militia, on guard at a provision station. Our orders are, that if any one refuses to keep order, or attempts to steal, shoot to kill." "The house where I live was little damaged, and not touched by the fire." "It's good the earthquake did not occur in the evening, for every theatre was shaken to pieces." "The millionaire must go to the distributing office for something to eat, like the rest."

It Is the Height of Extravagance to buy a cotton mixed suit—it will never give good service. It is equally extravagant to buy poorly tailored goods. You'll know this is true when the edges pucker and the seams rip and the fronts break.
When you buy a suit, get it good. It pays to buy the OAK HALL kind with the three-fold combination comprising all wool goods—thorough tailoring—fair prices.
Now here's a plain fact—we're able to give you the best for the money you want to spend because we are manufacturers.
Men's all-wool suits in black cheviot, $10 to $18.
Men's all-wool suits in black unfinished worsteds, $12 to $27.50.
Men's all-wool suits in fancy mixed chevots, $10 to $16.50.
Men's pure worsted suits in various shades of gray, $15 to $30.

Boys' Suits With Knee Trousers
We begin at a safe place—the place where we can furnish all-wool goods and silk sewing—plenty of novelties for the little fellows. When we clothe a boy, he is always glad to come back when another suit is needed.
Russian suits, 3 to 7 years, $3.50 to $7.50.
Spiller suits, 3 to 12 years, $3.50 to $10.50.
Double-breasted sack suits, 8 to 17 years, $4.50 to $10.
