Fifty Years Married.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Packard celebrated their Golden Wedding last Sunday, July 1st. Their son, Dr. E. M. Packard, his wife, little daughter and son, of Atlantic City, spent the day with them, and several friends called to see them. Much to their regret, their son Fremont and wife, now living in Chicago, could not be with them.

Sunday evening, they attended the Universalist Church and listened to a fine sermon by Rev. J. L. Dawson, to old people, and received many congratulations from their friends.

A party of their neighbors and friends spent Monday evening with them, making their hearts glad by congratulations, kind wishes, and substantial tokens of regard for them. A nice little poem from Mrs. O. E. Moore, of Boston, formerly of Hammonton, and letters from their son and wife, were read.

Refreshments were provided by the company, after partaking of which they departed for their homes, leaving the old couple much happier for their coming. Others, who could not be there, remembered them in a very kind and generous way.

Those present were Miss Margaret Atkinson, Mrs. Pressey, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Bassett, Mrs. Yates, Mrs. Laver, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. King, Mrs. Quinn, Mrs. H. G. Black, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Black, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Black, Misses Emma Hooper, Louise Pressey, Nana and Elsie Laver, Mary Mitchell, and Master Brewster Yates.

Mr. and Mrs. Packard are the only couple now living in Hammonton who came here the first year of its settlement.

At the meeting of the Board of Education, Tuesday evening, considerable routine business was transacted, and two vacancies in the corps of teachers were filled. For the position of Latin and French in the High School, Miss Seguire, of New Brighton, N. Y., was elected. She is a graduate of Barnard College, has taken graduate work at Yale University, and has taught at Staten Island Academy. Miss Sara Lawlor, of Athens, Penna., a graduate of West Chester Normal School, with four years experience in public school work, will have charge of Main Road School. There are still two vacancies, — First Grade, caused by resignation of Miss Wood, and Fifth Grade, vacated by Miss Garton, who will be general substitute next year. The session was wound up with a little informal reception and refreshments, in honor of the coming Fourth.

Mr. John Brownlee, of DaCosta, and Miss Clara Dudley were married on Sunday, July 1st, 1906, at the residence of the bride's father, Josiah Dudley, Middle Road, Hammonton, N. J., by Rev. W. W. Williams. Only members of the two families were present. The bride and groom took the 5:30 p. m. train for Delaware Water Gap, for a week or two. As both parties are well known, they will have the best wishes of the whole community.

A telegram was received, Tuesday morning, announcing the death of Mrs. C. M. Beard, at Washington, D. C. Her daughter, Mrs. Charles Black, started for the Capital. Diligent inquiry on our part failed to acquaint us with any details of Mrs. B.'s death. She had been in poor health for a long time, but was supposed to be better.

There was an unexpected change of time on the railroad, Saturday last. The Penny early mail goes up at 7:00 instead of 7:15; and arrives from Philadelphia, at 9:40, a. m., and 6:28, p. m., (one hour later than it should be.) On the landing, we have but little better service, up expresses running at 7:27, 9:12, 10:30, a. m.; 5:30 and 9:30, p. m.; down, 8:42, a. m.; 12:30, 1:30, 3:41, 5:18, 6:14 and 8:30 p. m.

The Fourth of July!

Hammonton's Celebration Was A Success!

Tuesday night's rain put the streets and grounds in prime condition. Heavy clouds and occasional light showers, on Wednesday morning, put a damper on some people's enthusiasm; but before ten o'clock there was promise of pleasant weather, the veiled sun making the temperature agreeable.

They were here from all the region round about, and brought their nearest relatives—present and prospective—and made Hammonton's streets look lively enough, for once. And they brought the holiday spirit with them.

The parade was late in starting, and was not as extensive as we had hoped;
still, it was creditable to the town.
Captain Reid was in command. The bremen came next to our excellent band, which had twenty-five pieces.

The fire ladders were the only organization on foot, and wore their new uniform coats. Their chemical engine and hose wagon were drawn by horses.

There were nine floats in the line, as follows: Red Cross Pharmacy, John H.
Marshall, John A. Hoyt, Jackson & Son, Samuel Anderson, the Grange, P. O. S. of A., Robert Steel, and A. H.
Simons. Of course, we were not commissioned to decide as to the respective merits of these mounted exhibitions.
All were admired. Many expressed their approval of the S. of A. float—
"Washington Crossing the Delaware."

Others thought that Simone's auto little Equipeux, drawn by two donkeys, was best; still others admired Jackson & Son's handsome big auto; and—but all were good, and made the parade interesting. There will be more, next time.

The decorations on business houses and private residences were more elaborate and general than ever before. A committee awarded prizes to Volunteer Fire Company, and to Capt. Chas. D.
Loveland, whose spacious grounds were filled with all nations—"Old Glory" heading the list, of course.

The band gave pleasure by almost continuous playing, showing what fine training Mr. Fidler has given them.
After dinner, a flag, 30x16 feet, was unfurled, a large choir of children sang "Star Spangled Banner," the band played patriotic airs, and the grand cheer closed.

Rev. L. G. Fowler made a stirring address, patriotic and eloquent, which was listened to by a large audience, who applauded generously and complimented the able speaker.

Then came the sports.
Great interest was taken in the various events. The track, which was in excellent condition, was lined for many feet with spectators. The track events were not so well patronized as they should have been, and the small number of entries detracted somewhat from the public interest.

The one mile bicycle race for men was won by Stroud, with Paris second; the time was about three minutes. On account of the very poor time made, Stroud volunteered to ride an exhibition mile, paced, in which his recorded time was 2:22, the second-half being made in 1:03.

The boys' half-mile bicycle race was won by Joe Angelo; Kendall second; Myers third. Time, 1:25.
Ranere made the half-mile motorcycle in 55 seconds, official time.

In the boys' half-mile foot race, Wes-coat won easily in about 2:20.
The potato race was won by Weacot and Reed.

Aquatic sports were the most interesting. The swimming race was won by Harrower, Robert second, Coggy third.

The single canoe race was won by Coggy in fine style, with Roy Jackson second, and Loveland third.

The two-man canoe race was won by Coggy and Myrose; Roy and Ernest Jackson second (allowed on class of four), Loveland and Harrower third.

The course, from Verder's boat-house to Park Landing, was covered in 2:55.
"About eight o'clock, the 'rocket's red glare' summoned the reinforced crowd to the race-track, where experts set off a choice display of fireworks,—as fine as was ever seen in Hammonton. It was in good variety, and pleased all.

All the various stands and amusements did a splendid business, and aided in making it a day of enjoyment.

It was the largest crowd we ever saw in Hammonton, and all good-natured and happy. We have yet to hear of a case of disorder.

KICKS, KNOCKS AND COMMENTS
BY A KRIFFIK.

The parade was late in starting, but was worth waiting for.
Hoyt was "too the water wagon," for sure.

The band excelled themselves, but I would have appreciated more of the old time patriotic airs on the street.

That flag was a beauty, and as it fluttered to the breeze, most every man stood uncovered—except the man who raised it.

Wonder what Mr. Burgan meant by "ayn-blum," in referring to the flag.
Wonder why Simone didn't furnish ice water with his ice cream. People expect it.
Refreshment stands all did a rushing business. Really, things looked like they used to when we had country fairs at the Park. "The Judge" used to act as chief cook, occasionally, in those old days, and had a way of dipping his finger into the kettle to see if the water was hot enough for tea. Mrs. — is said to have denounced at the unwholesome act, but I don't remember now that it pleased anybody.
Charlie Loveland and his Philadelphia friend came near winning in the canoe race, but came a sight nearer an upset.
Got onto that twist of the wrist, boys.
The fireworks were O.K. — too short to be long — too long to be short — too good to be missed. And that fine the whole programme, I'm glad I was there.

Home Saxton and family, from just as happy as the rest.

It does not look much like a day of rest to those who came into town on Sunday morning,—harsh, chop, soon fountain and clear and bicycle stores going full blast. Where are our laws?
If we haven't any, let us do something next fall.

The new automobile law went into effect last Sunday, and our officials were kept busy for a day or two examining permits and licenses. A majority of tourists had procured their papers, and but little revenue was derived from that source.

The REPUBLICAN can now be reached by three phones, over the local circuit. The office, during working hours, No. 682; O. E. Hoyt, No. 678; W. O. Hoyt, 1078. Local items, appointments, and orders can be sent to any of these.

"Woody" Capriccio, P. N. Swift's farm boy, was arrested on Sunday for driving off crockers on the street. After hearing the evidence (including the statement that he had purchased the crockers that day), he was discharged with a reprimand.

Our present Council, and also those who have served as such, are unanimous in the opinion that we need a new form of government. There is hardly a law or provision which can be enforced, and our officials cannot make a move without consulting an attorney.

The REPUBLICAN, a few years ago, published a synopsis of the city law, and there have been several desirable changes in it since then.
