"Stand by Home Enterprises."

You ask: "Why should I have an Independent Telephone in my home?"

This question is occasionally put to us by prospective subscribers, and, among others, we always enumerate

These Reasons Why:

1st, Because, after you have had it in one week you'll regard it as the greatest convenience you have that costs as little.

2nd, Because it not only puts you in touch with over 200 other Hammontonians, but with Philadelphia and hundreds of other cities and towns as well.

3rd, Because in case of fire, burglars, tramps or accidents, the fire department, police or physician can be reached with an appreciable saving of time and minutes count in such cases!

A Few Census Figures.

We are in receipt of the official compendium of the census of New Jersey for 1905, from which we abstract a few interesting figures.

Hammonton was incorporated in 1866. First census taken in 1870, having 1404 inhabitants. (Atlantic City had but 1043 at that time.) In 1880 there were 1776; in 1890, 3,333; in 1905, 4,334.

This last census divided the population as follows: American born, 2875; English, 86; Irish, 36; German, 62; Italian, 123; others, 72. Naturalized, 233.

Occupations: Professions, 149; commercial, 165; skilled laborers, 418; unskilled, 440; farmers, 338; others, 533. Persons who can read, 2423; write, 2370.

No. males, 2116; females, 2218; total population, 4334. Inhabitants in the first precinct, 2017; second, 2317.

No. dwellings, 867; families, 982. No. colored people, 18. No. children under five years, 565; between five and eighteen, 1142; between eighteen and twenty-one, 216; twenty-one to forty-five, 1351. Single males, 1201; females, 1185. Married, 1725; widowed, 217; divorced, 6.

Total population of Atlantic County, 59,862.

A broken belly-band caused a runaway, Monday, which might have resulted seriously, had not one of the occupants, a young lady, jumped out and held onto the lines. A score or more of people assembled, and the little animal was caught. It had slipped out of its harness, without breaking. W. S. Lever owned the rig.

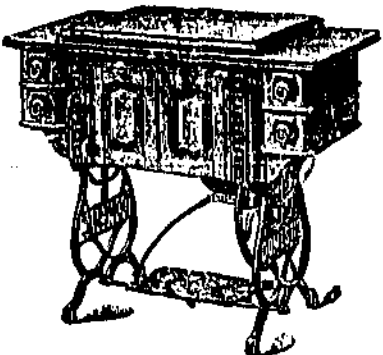

Messrs. Wm. F. and Geo. W. Bassett and wives will sail next Tuesday for New England. Among other places they will take in Nottingham and Claremont, N. H., and Mr. B. Sr.'s birthplace, Ashfield, Mass. Mr. Bassett, Sr., is eighty-one years old, and will doubtless see many changes in the old places.

PIANOS.—If you want a bargain in used pianos of any make, write for Bargain Booklet to Music & Sons, Philadelphia.

There will be a novelty in the Westville Church grove, Aug. 4th, conducted by the "Daily Males and Farmer Boys." Coffee and tea, refreshments, swings, games, base-ball, etc., are on the list. Miss Lillian Doughty, of Haddonfield, child impersonator, will be present. Tickets include a plate of cream.

Rev. H. T. Taylor will go to the old men's home, at 39th and Powelton Avenue, Philadelphia, on July 30th. It is a pleasant home, and we believe it will be a good thing for him.

Lucas Paints

It doesn't pay a painter to mix his own paint. Lucas Paints are mixed more evenly and thoroughly by improved modern machinery. They save his time and are better after they are mixed. They spread so easily and cover so thoroughly that he can finish a job with much less labor and in shorter time.

Best of all, they hold their color better, wear longer, and always make a satisfactory job. Ask your dealer.

SATURDAY, JULY 21, 1906.

FIRES.

There were three alarms and one warning, last Saturday.

About 9:30, a.m., the bell summoned the firemen, and with the aid of Mart's team, the chemical engine was hurried to Rocco DeMarco's place, on Pine Road, where they found his barn alight.

Of course the boys could not travel three miles in time to do much good, and the barn was destroyed; but they did their best. Some of the berry pickers lost clothing and money.

About 11:30, the alarm again was heard again. This time, the fire was in Drake's saw-mill at the foot of the Lake.

One of the Drake family was clearing out rubbish in the building, and built a fire under the boiler. It is supposed that sparks from the chimney caused the fire, which burned a hole in both roofs, before George Drake, assisted by others, extinguished it. The firemen were stopped en route, and returned.

About 7:30, a third alarm drew the populace to the corner of Second and Orchard Street, where an oil stove took fire in the house owned by A. L. Jackson. The trouble was over in quick time, before much damage was done.

Later in the evening, Mrs. Parkhurst warned Central to be ready to case the firemen were needed. A great brush heap near their barn was burning, and they might not be able to control it. But there was no alarm.

A busy day for the brave fire-ladles; but no fire to fight.

Prof. Hollings received a postal yesterday morning from Hon. S. D. Hoffman, written from Rome, Italy, dated July 11th. In it the writer states that he is quite well.

Mr. Lenz entertained his brother-in-law, John Hourstillon, and wife and daughter, Miss Emma; also Mr. Alfred Miller and Mrs. Trese Trudo, all of Philadelphia.

GOOD BUGGY for sale. Apply to W. H. COGLEY, Main Road.

Four men were locked up, Monday, charged with picking pockets, and a fifth for highway robbery. As there was not sufficient evidence to convict them, they were released.

The Freeholders are advertising for bids for the construction of the Aiton Road, six and four-tenths miles in length. Bids will be opened on Aug. 1st, at Atlantic City.

THE RIGHT building just vacated by J. Lenz, the barber, corner Third and Main. Apply to J. E. KIRKMAN.

Mrs. Enos Fraelch died on Tuesday last, at her home on Grape Street, after a long illness. The family came here in the spring from Camden, in hopes of benefiting her health, but it was too late. Funeral will be held to-morrow.

Everybody reads the Republican, because it's all there.

John Francisco and Santa Rosa brought suit, Wednesday, for ten dollars and costs against Frank Capella, claiming trespass and picking of two crates of berries on July 6th. Capella claimed that he had been working the land for Stephen Melchior, former owner, on shares, and that he had a lease dated last March. As the lease had been signed since the land was sold, and not recorded, it was not admitted as evidence, and the jury decided for the plaintiff.

MR. F. P. DICKINSON, Secy. and Treas. of Creston Mine Company, having bought a farm in town and located here, is disposed to extend a courtesy railway share to visitors, in the purchase of the stock. He can be reached by addressing P. O. Box 133.

The Drexel yacht, under Capt. Crowley Loveland, while at the Azores, was found to have a leaking boiler. Therefore the yacht was taken directly to Glasgow, where it was built. After repairs there, the future course will be decided upon, whether to continue on to Japan, or take a shorter cruise and return home. Mrs. Loveland will sail for Glasgow to-day, to join her husband.

FARM FOR SALE. Blue Anchor, N. J. I have a farm of six acres, with chicken house, and all necessary out-buildings, near town, in good condition. Porch all around, and a Lodge. A very pretty place, in a healthy location. For particulars address Mrs. C. V. BEZEL, Blue Anchor, N. J.

On Sunday night, Pigea DeLuca and others called at Antonio Poles', on Fairview, and a lively time ensued. All had been drinking, and DeLuca claims that in a quarrel that resulted, Giuseppe and Antonio Poles fell upon him, beating him and injuring him severely, and that Jose Poles bit him and tore his hair out by the roots. Justice Garton held the three defendants for court, the men furnishing bonds of $400 each. Poles has brought a counter charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

TUTORING in Elementary and College Preparatory Branches, during summer, home or school. Write, or call at the N. J. HIGH SCHOOL OFFICE, J. E. HUYE, M.A.

Among the numerous lawsuits the past week, was one tried before Justice Garton, last Saturday, in which Dom Campanella and Spear for sand hauled from his place, on Broadway, by Mart's men, and used on the new school house. As the evidence was insufficient, and witnesses did not agree, the jury rendered a verdict of no cause for action.

HIGHWAY PRISON paid for all kinds of old junk in large or small quantities. Road junk and I will call. W. E. LINDLEY, Hammononton, N. J.

Mrs. Margaret Edwards, a long time resident in this section, died at her home, at Iron Mills, on Monday night, July 16th, aged 90 years. Known to many of the older people, esteemed as a kind, careful Christian woman. Funeral on Wednesday, conducted by Pastor W. W. Williams.

HOUSEHOLDERS for all kinds of old junk in large or small quantities. Road junk and I will call. W. E. LINDLEY, Hammononton, N. J.

There was more intoxication in town on Monday than we ever saw here before; but considering that two loads of beer were brought in and sold, it was not a very noisy crowd.

The unit system prevails in our High School. A condition means that all the work of the grade from which the pupil is promoted has not been done. Pupils should work at conditions during the summer and be prepared to work them off as early as possible in the term. Some conditions must be worked off at opening of school. All must be during first month.

Pupils marked thus (c) are conditioned. (G) signifies on trial.

The 16th of July.

Hammononton's transient population must have exceeded any previous record,
last Monday, — "Our Lady's Day."
We never saw so many strangers on our streets—and they were not all Italians either.

Sunday night's rain made the weather agreeable, the three bands made almost continuous music, the peripatetic organ with its monkey, a street piano, the balloon man, ice cream stands, and all the paraphernalia of a county fair, kept the crowd entertained until the procession started, about 3:30 p. m.

This was, as usual, composed of old and young of both sexes, — a long double line of girls in white being a most attractive feature. Marchals and aids kept the long files in much better order than usual. The march occupied about three hours, and crowds of spectators lined the walks all along the route. We could not but note the evident worshipful earnestness of many of those who marched — they considering that they thus honored the Lady whom they have been taught to venerate.

At night, the vicinity of Third and Fairview was thronged with a crowd such as the oldest never saw (some say five thousand). For an hour, a free moving picture show entertained those who were stationed in range. At nine o'clock, a grand exhibition of fire works was given, — pronounced by those who saw it, the best ever given here.

Considering the immense crowd, there was very little disorder, and the committees in charge deserve commendation for the manner in which their duties were done.
