The celebrated author, in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous use of internal remedies or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

THE DAILY PRESS.

BRIDGETON, NEW JERSEY: SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 1866.

Citizens' Allotments.

Every one may, this city allotments present a strong temptation to the inhabitants of rural districts, which require no small degree of moral courage to overcome. To the women—Bridgeton many attractions to the various objects of amusement, the theatre, the concert, the dancing school, the hollow show, the bellow [illegible] and the gaudy haunts of vice—

The women indeed, display no partiality, but thoughtlessly run instinctively from the country to this town and the plain duties of everyday life to the fashionable. He wants more company—more excitement—better opportunities for "showing off,"—and so going to Bridgeton becomes a mania. Home affections, and childhood's associations, are sacrificed without a sigh to this foolish impulse, and parents are often reduced to a reluctant consent against their own convictions.

We know how hard it is to deny a dutiful child anything; but there are occasions in which the most indulgent parent should yield to duty rather than inclination; and the passion of youth for having the sacred precincts of home, is one which calls for some wholesome restraint. Lads from 16 to 20 should not be suddenly transferred from parental authority and thrust among strangers, without some controlling power to guide their footsteps. A clerkship, a salesman, or mere store drudgery, is looked upon by them as far more elevated employment than that of agricultural pursuits, and in such capacities, they will uncomplainingly endure more hardships, suffer more privations, and receive more insults, than they ever received at home. Their high-spirited boy, also, will soon discover a wide difference between his social status in the country, and that which he is frequently forced to occupy in the city. And hence arises social equality and harmony of interest; abroad, he finds himself treated as an unoffending, and as a most kindly disposed gentleman; at home he is [illegible] length as a mere menial. He is not a master of his own player's family, he has none to whom to confide, and all that is required of him, is to perform his share of labor at the proper time.

Living in this atmosphere of cold indifference,—perhaps driven among improper associations at some cheap boarding house, he too often seeks relief in excitement such as the negro minstrels, the theatre, the concert, or that which the bar-room affords. Before he knows it, he is accustomed to scenes of dissipation, and, to meet the expense of fast living, he is often tempted to wrong his employer. How many young men, lost themselves to society, can look back and trace the ruin to the cause we have named. Aside from this, the compensation is rarely sufficient to afford expenditures incident to fashionable life in a city; and yet one of the first weaknesses display'd by a country lad, is to endeavor to make a show, no matter what drains are made upon his purse by other shoes, he must dress gaily to maintain his caste. Here is another much constantly gnawing at his limited income; and, with all these excesses, we sometimes wonder that even one escapes the temptation to commit crime.

There is one public element of morality among the unsophisticated youth, however, which often inflicts a double punishment—We allude to the inadequate wages paid clerks and salesmen. If merchants were more liberal, there would be more virtue, and perhaps less immorality; but when young men are expected to keep up appearances in a way of dress, which attracts to their duties, or in pursuit of pleasure, the proprietor must know that if not a model of economy, he is very apt to take from the till a little to make it square. The honest boy, if properly treated, will generally prove dishonest, if his salary is sufficient to let him "run into debt" regularly, and there is no other guard against pilfering. Reluctant to pass an ill-natured remark, afraid to reject it,—the members look on unconcernedly, and see it back and forth in

NOTICE.

DARKNESS and DEALERS in FERTILIZERS:

We have been requested by a number of Farmers to put a Trade Mark on our Bone, and, in response to their wishes, we have put on our BONE DUST the TRADE MARK of the Bone long accepted years.

In Washington, we intend to give this protection to the "Trade Mark" on account of several parties having attempted to counterfeit it, and in a manner, viz: by putting their articles in the packages of the Original Manufacturer, and in addition to this, in some instances, putting it for exclusive purposes, in packages purporting to be from the Original. We would state to the trade and consumers that we have no Agents in Delaware or elsewhere (except Trade Mark) to open every bag of Bone, and that our Bone is sold only by the Original.

BAUGH'S
RAW BONE

SUPERPHOSPHATE OF LIME,
Manufactured by BAUGH & SONS,
No. 26 South Delaware Avenue, Philadelphia.

The great popularity of our article has been found sufficient inducement to certain imitators to manufacture and advertise "Raw Bone Superphosphate," a name which originated with us, and is our own rightful property. We will state for the information of all, that we are the exclusive manufacturers of the genuine—the original and sole proprietors of it—having been manufactured by us for a period of twelve years. Another fact to be noted by purchasers is, that it is sold only by ourselves.

We are now ready to supply it in large quantities (having made special arrangements for the season). Vessels drawing 18 feet of water can load directly from the wharves of the works, which are located at the foot of Morris Street, Delaware River. We would also call attention to the following great advantages.

The present indications are that we shall have a greatly increased demand over last spring and fall business, and we therefore intend to be well in the field early—in time for the season, and to be prepared to fill all orders promptly.

Soliciting the continuance of your orders, we remain,
Yours very truly,

UNDENIABLE EVIDENCE OF THE EFFICIENCY OF ZOLLICKOFFER'S
ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL.

ONE of the reporters of the Philadelphia Sunday Mercury, and a former war correspondent of the New York Herald, testified in a late number of the former paper concerning the miraculous cures performed upon him when prostrated from Rheumatism, begotten by exposure upon the battle-fields of Gettysburg. No wonder that his testimony was of so acute a nature that he could not help it, nor alone now can. Himself a sufferer from the intensity of his bodily pain was distressing. In a few weeks he had come to a perfect cure. Zollickoffer's Cordial or Anti-Rheumatic Remedy, as it is more commonly called, and in three weeks he was entirely well. Lumbago he traveled thirty thousand miles, and never suffered from fatigue and any symptoms of the return of the disease.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1866.
THE Great Invention of the Age is the HOOP SKIRT'N.
J. W. Bradley's New Patent DUPLEX EL-LIPTIC SPRING SKIRT, Manufactured by
J. W. BRADLEY & CO.,
Bridgeton, New Jersey.

This invention consists of Duplex or twin Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided and tastefully tied together, so as to shape, causing the toughest and flexible elastic and durable Skirt ever made. They will not break or turn, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and graceful Shape every time worn as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be sold.

This wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure in any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded places, Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and Home Dress as the Skirt can be folded from the waist so as to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Spiral Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Grace, Ease and Young Ladies they are unsurpassed by any.

THE HOOPS are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are Double Steel and twice as strong as required to prevent the covering from wearing off the rod when dragging down stairs, stone steps or walks, which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving them a handsome appearance, graceful and elegant shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most durable, and economical Skirt ever made.

For sale in all the first-class stores in the city, and throughout the United States and Canada. Also, in Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

Jobbers supplied on the Lowest Wholesale and Spring Rates.

WM. KNABE & CO'S
Celebrated Gold Medal
PIANO-FORTES.

J. BAUER & CO., AGENTS.
WAREROOMS,
650 BROADWAY, NEW YORK,
99 Clark St. and Crosby's Opera House,
Washington St., Chicago, Illinois.

Read the following commendatory letters from distinguished Artists.

Wm. Knabe & Co.—Gentlemen:
I have great pleasure in certifying that I have tried your Grand Piano-Forte and find it to be a first-class instrument, and I can recommend it to the public as a superior article. Among the great qualities which distinguish it are, fine singing quality of tone, and agreeable touch and volume of tone.
Yours, very truly, L. M. GOTTSCHALK.

Wm. Knabe & Co.—Gentlemen:
I have much pleasure in saying that your Pianos are the finest I have ever used. Possessing the power, sweetness and responsiveness which you continually make in your Pianos, they are, in my opinion, entitled to the very best in the country. M. STRAKOSCH.

Wm. Knabe & Co.—Gentlemen:
The Grand Piano you have presented to me for my parlors gives entire satisfaction. Its power, quality of tone and equality throughout the various registers, impress me with the conviction that you have surpassed in brilliancy and evenness, and power combined, without a rival in the country or in Europe. The wonderful quality of tone, combining great depth and powerful volume, with a rich and singing quality of the upper octaves, together with ample elasticity of touch and action, render them superior to any other instrument, which rarely, if ever, combine these most essential requisites. Professionally and personally, your manufactures have my highest praise. I most cheerfully and unreservedly recommend them to those connoisseurs in every way competent to judge.
S. HEINE,
Musical Director of the Brinton Opera.
New York, Dec. 18th, 1864.

Wm. Knabe & Co.—Gentlemen:
Your Agent, Mr. Bauer, asked me to give him my opinion as to the merits of your Pianos, and I cheerfully comply with his request. I have used your Pianos at concerts, and in my own house, and consider them superior to all others. They are unequalled in power, sweetness and purity of tone, and in every other quality which goes to make a perfect instrument. I take pleasure in recommending them to the public.
Yours truly, ROBERT HELLER.
New York, Dec. 17th, 1864.

Wm. Knabe & Co.—Gentlemen:
I have carefully examined your new scale Grand and Square Pianos, and take pleasure in saying that they are exceedingly built with regard to touch and tone, and that the improvements introduced are a decided step ahead in this country or Europe, and you have permission to make use of my name as you may desire.
Yours, respectfully, OTTO W. HODOUX,
Organist of Grace Church.
New York, Dec. 12th, 1864.

Wm. Knabe & Co.—Gentlemen:
It affords me great pleasure to testify to the great excellence of your Piano Fortes. As regards volume and quality of tone, delicacy of touch, durability and finish, I believe they will compare favorably with those of the most celebrated makers. I shall take every opportunity of bringing them to the notice of the public.
Very truly, yours, W. K. RANSFORD.
