

Samuel Kirby, clerk. OPEN NEW JERSEY TO AUTOMOBILE TOURISTS. EDGE BILL PASSES THIRD READING IN HOUSE. Does Away With Special License—New Measures of Interest Introduced This Week In The State Legislature.

Trenton, N. J., February 10.—Although the legislature has been in session five weeks, it was not until Tuesday last that the House got down to actual business and started to consider bills on third reading. The Edge bill, House 25, to permit out-of-the-State motorists to come into New Jersey three times a year for five days without paying a license fee for that privilege and without the necessity of registration, was the first one taken up.

THE bill to amend the law relating to auto clubs, it amends the Freylinghuysen law and if enacted will do away with the (oldest statute of last year, which required a license fee of $1 for an eight-day period. Minority Leader Sullivan argued the bill's amendment so as to provide for registration.

Assemblyman E. Anderson introduced his saying if registration is required the dollar license fee must as well be continued. The autoists, he said, do not mind the dollar fee, but do object to the delay occasioned in securing a license or in registering. The bill passed by a vote of 35 to 19.

Bills of general interest introduced during the week in the House were as follows: No. 184. Provides that expenses incurred by prosecutors of the board of freeholders of the county court, shall be fully examined and a hearing thereon accorded by boards of chosen freeholders or the finance committee thereof. No. 185. Amends the act fixing the salaries of surrogates, clerks of orphans, county clerks and sheriffs, by providing that the salaries of all deputies and assistants, together with the number to be employed, must be fixed, approved by the board of freeholders. Common pleas judges must also have their salaries fixed.

No. 186. Provides that any number of persons not less than three may incorporate a company to construct, maintain and operate water works, to supply cities, towns, townships and other municipalities with salt water, and authorizes such municipalities to contract for a supply of salt water for public purposes. No. 187. Mr. Edge introduced the assistant prosecuting act fixing the salary of such official in Atlantic County at $2,000, instead of $1,200 per year. Provided the board of freeholders approve the same.

No. 188. Mr. Edge. Amends the disorderly act by increasing fines to be inflicted from $25 to $175. No. 189. Mr. Edge. Provides that the heirs of any purchaser of any turnpike or bridge, plant, road, gas, water or gas and water corporation sold by the United States, shall be held to the same as if they were the original purchaser. No. 190. Provides that all railroad companies on all railroad bridges on navigable streams shall erect and forever maintain a foot passage at least five feet in width across such bridges.

The Senate introduced the following bills of general interest were introduced: No. 116. Supplement to the act of 1887 providing for the establishment of a state reformatory which prohibits that any person over the age of twenty-five years shall be committed to that institution for any cause.

No. 117. Creates a department of "collateral inheritance" transfers to the same all the powers and duties devolving upon the controller relative to the collection of collateral inheritance taxes. Provides for the establishment of a commission. No. 118. Authorizes judges of the court of common pleas to appoint some suitable woman, a resident of the county, to serve as matron of the county jail. Shall hold office for a term of five years, or until a successor is appointed and qualified. The judge, at the time of appointment, shall file a commission. No. 119. Amends the crimes act, provision of 1878, by making the minimum limit for commitments to state prison one year instead of six months. Also provides that where a person is sentenced in any county having a penitentiary for a term not exceeding two years, they shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary located within the said county, instead of being sent to the state prison, unless the person so convicted has served a previous term in prison. Makes it mandatory on custodians of jails, workhouses or penitentiaries to allow one day of sentence for good behavior.

HONOR MEMORY OF LINCOLN. Name of "Honest Abe" Dear to Every True American Citizen. Today the people of the United States, in North and South, East and West, will join in celebrating the anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth, an event that passed at the time without even the honor of a mention in the local columns of a newspaper, but which was destined to give to the "hand of the free" the man of destiny who, more than any other, preserved the unity of the States and upheld the supremacy of the Constitution.

The recent centennial celebration of Lincoln's birthday attested to the love of Americans for "Honest Abe," who holds a place in the heart of every true patriot second to none. Washington is revered and honored and highly esteemed, Abe Lincoln is held in a more intimate regard, because his obscure birth, lack of education and rugged integrity to the right appeal direct to the hearts of democratic Americans. It is useless to ask which of our great men hold first place in the estimate of their countrymen, for each performed a different mission, and both deserve the highest honor that Americans can give.

FIREMEN ELECT OFFICERS. Reliance Hose Company Discusses Measures for Better Protection of Property—Strong Recommendation for Chemical Hose Wagon. At a meeting Monday evening last of the Reliance Hose Company officers were elected for the ensuing year. Interest in the matter of better protection for municipal property was evident, steps being taken to secure additional fire-fighting apparatus. It was the unanimous opinion that the purchase of a combination chemical hose wagon will afford much better protection to the entire town, including those portions and nearby districts not included in the water system, and will probably be instrumental in securing a further reduction of insurance rates.

The officers elected are: President, H. C. James; Vice-President, Ira B. Smith; Treasurer, Harrison Wilson; Secretary, Lewis W. Cramer; Chief, E. C. Shaner; Foreman, Daniel Marshall; Assistant Foreman, G. A. Ritchie. A committee was appointed to investigate the incorporation of a Firemen's Relief Association, provided for by statute, which entitles the firemen to secure two per cent. of all insurance written in the municipality for the purpose of establishing a relief fund. If firemen are injured in the performance of their duty the Association comes to their assistance, making it in effect an accident insurance fund, without cost to the firemen or the Township. The fund will not work any increase in insurance rates. The committee appointed consists of Messrs. R. E. Beach, L. W. Cramer, A. C. Abbott and I. B. Smith.

As the engineer at the pumping station is not on duty a large portion of the day and night, the company took steps to provide for the maintenance of water pressure by the appointment of a committee, consisting of Messrs. R. E. Beach, John Pratt and D. W. Smith, to wait upon the Township Committee and request the appointment of G. A. Ritchie and Charles Voight to start the engine at the pumping station in the absence of the engineer in case of necessity, at no cost to the Township.

J., and was buried yesterday at South Laurel Cemetery, Philadelphia. On account of sickness Elder D. E. Isard was unable to lead the prayer meeting at the Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening last. Mrs. Leah Tice, of Willowood, spent Wednesday night here with her sister, Mrs. W. G. Harker. E. C. Gaskill, Sr., took the examination Saturday morning for census enumerator of Hamilton Township. He was the only candidate from May's Landing.

MAY PAVE MEADOW BOULEVARD. Maintenance of Gravel Road Proves Expensive Say Freeholders. More than half-a-million of the Meadow Boulevard from Atlantic City to Pleasantville will be paved with Warrenite at a cost of $55,000, according to plans of the Board of Freeholders. If the paving works satisfactory the entire boulevard will probably be paved. The resolution adopted Wednesday by the Board is as follows: "Whereas, We find it impossible to secure gravel for keeping the Meadow Boulevard in proper repair unless it is brought in by rail-road, which results in getting inferior gravel at an excessive cost, and

"Whereas, It is evident to us that it would be an actual saving to the taxpayers to construct a permanent pavement of a durable character, as compared with the cost of continually supplying additional gravel, and

"Whereas, In our opinion it would be wise to lay a permanent surface upon at least a portion of the Boulevard, at this time, thereby affording an opportunity to make a permanent and factual basis of construction and maintenance, and

"Whereas, After having inspected the various forms of paving material in New Jersey, we are of the opinion that Warrenite Roadway is the proper material to use for the resurfacing of the Boulevard, therefore be it

"Resolved, That the County Engineer is hereby instructed to immediately prepare plans and specifications for the resurfacing with Warrenite Roadway, to be laid upon a four-inch broken stone foundation, on top of the existing gravel roadway, for that portion of the Meadow Boulevard extending from Albany Avenue Bridge to Beach-Thoroughfare Bridge; same to be presented at the next regular meeting of the Board."

BOARD COMMITTEES NAMED. Regular February Meeting of Organization Brief But Interesting. The regular monthly meeting of the May's Landing Board of Trade was held Thursday evening at Library Hall. The letter was referred to the Business Committee. Following a general discussion of several matters of public improvement, upon which, however, no definite action was taken, the meeting was adjourned. The next regular session will be held March 10. Pleasantville News. Charles S. Adams and wife, who have been wintering in Florida, expect to return here soon. Mrs. Carl Gaskill, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Adams. Lenten services began in St. Mark's Episcopal Church on Ash Wednesday last. Mrs. Edward J. Hazelton who was taken suddenly ill on Tuesday last is reported much improved. CRIMINAL COURT IN SESSION. Wayward Girl Acquitted of Forging Check—Term Nearing Close. Disposition of cases listed for trial on the January calendar of the Criminal Court was resumed Thursday morning by Judge E. A. Higbee. The first case moved by Assistant Prosecutor G. A. Bolte was that of the State vs. Edith Mason, for forging two checks of $5 each on the Chelsea National Bank, of Atlantic City, in the name of Charles Chang, a Chinaman. The defendant was acquitted by the verdict of the jury, after one of the most sensational trials of the term.

The case of Edith Mason was the old story of a young girl led into a life of crime by immoral companions. The defendant, not quite twenty years of age, confessed to forging the checks, but asserted in defence of her act that Chany instructed her so to do. Her relations with the Chinaman covered a period of two years, during which time she said he contributed to her support, and told her to draw the checks in order to purchase clothing. Lawyer William J. Garrison, who, with John Raufenbary, defended Miss Mason, contested every point of the testimony and made a strong appeal to the jury for the acquittal of his client, who, he insisted, had been "ruined by the influence of evil associates." The evidence of the forgery was uncontradicted, the defense pleading lack of any criminal intent.

John B. Johnson, colored, indicted for maintaining a disorderly house for gaming under the name of the Colored Veterans Association, at Atlantic City, was convicted yesterday as charged and will be sentenced next Wednesday. Court was adjourned yesterday until next Thursday, when Judge Higbee will resume the trial of remaining cases on the criminal calendar, which are few in number.

The program in full will be announced next week. Tickets for the entertainment will be placed on sale during the coming week and as there will be a rush for the favorite seats it will pay everybody to reserve their cards of admission early. The entertainment will be one of the best of the kind ever given here and the County Capitol boys anticipate a big patronage.

Young announced the clarion note and now the amusement-loving public is awaiting with keen anticipation for the launching of the biggest musical attraction ever attempted in Atlantic City—the Banda Musican, an organization of seventy-five musicians, a battery of charming dancing soloists, and lastly a troupe of eminent soloists, wherein lies one of the features of the coming engagement. Music-lovers will have an opportunity of hearing the grand opera affairs with the big band as an accompaniment. It is in all one of the most daring musical enterprises ever conceived. Seventy-five soloists, including ten in the orchestra, and a corps of soloists in native dress and corsets embarked on a Northward bound transport Tuesday, after a sensational concert tour of the South under the direction of J. E. Roach, and are scheduled to arrive in New York on the eleventh inst. Their engagement opens on the Million Dollar Pier the day following, and the mammoth band stand formerly occupied by the Philippines Constabulary Band will be filled with the talented Texas border.

ANOTHER RECORD FOR SWIFT JERSEY JUSTICE. WATKINS CONVICTED AFTER SEVEN HOUR TRIAL. Justice Trenchard Imposes Maximum Sentence upon Negro Found Guilty of Manslaughter—Four Township Residents on Jury. One of the shortest murder trials on record in Atlantic County was terminated Wednesday afternoon before Justice Thomas W. Trenchard when the jury, after deliberating a half-hour, found Albert Watkins, a special colored officer, guilty of manslaughter in the shooting of Ernest Crown at a "donkey-party" at the saloon of Daniel Shuggs, 3920 Baltic Avenue, Atlantic City, on the night of December last. The case was begun Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock and occupied about seven hours actual trial. Watkins, 31 years of age, was sentenced to a term of ten years in State Prison and fined $1,000, the maximum sentence for manslaughter.

The story of the shooting as related by witnesses for the State and for defense was substantially as follows: On the night of December 4, Daniel Shuggs, proprietor of the saloon, announced a "donkey-party" drawing and a large number of colored people of both sexes gathered to enjoy the affair. Crown came in about nine o'clock and spent the evening in the saloon, together with Watkins and others. About halfpast eleven Shuggs announced that he would call the donkey-party off, but Crown resented this and declared that he would have the party anyway, taking the "donkey" from the proprietor and taking it to the wall. After an altercation with Shuggs, he attacked the latter with a soda water bottle and Shuggs retreated back of the bar for his revolver. Securing that, he kept the angry man at bay.

Shortly after this Watkins came in at the side door and interfered with Crown, as he was employed by Shuggs as special officer. Crown then turned to attack him, when Watkins drew his pistol and shot, the ball entering the abdomen. Crown staggered out and shortly after was taken to the hospital, where he died from the effects of the wound. Lawyers John J. Crandall and Isaac Nutter, counsel for Watkins, attempted to secure an acquittal for their client on the ground that he shot Crown in self-defense; that in so doing he was exercising his right as an officer. Prosecutor C. L. Goldenberg, however, denied that the shooting was necessary and produced evidence to the effect that Watkins bore Crown a grudge over a previous discharge from his employ in a store yard. After the evidence was all in, and the attorneys had argued the case, Justice Trenchard reviewed the facts of the tragedy and pointed out the law relating to circumstances under which a man was justified in using a deadly weapon, enumerating the several degrees of crime and the proof necessary for each.

Throughout the trial Watkins gave no outward sign of emotion and received his sentence with the same stolid indifference that characterized his former conduct. Relatives in the Court room at the time sentence was passed gave way to their emotion, but otherwise the trial was a matter of routine. The entire case was finished in less than the entire day. On the other hand, its details were well known to the public, picking the depraved conditions which surrounded the shooting; that few not interested in the case cared to witness the trial and listen to the testimony. The jury, selected from a special panel of forty-eight townsmen, was as follows: Henry Burley, foreman; Edward Gaskill, William H. Moore, Josiah D. Nixon, Ralph S. Yannanman, Richard Benson, William Van Dusen, Lewis Mason, Frank White, Joseph Duberson, John H. Clark and William Adler. It will be noted that four jurymen were drawn from this place.

Civil Service Openings. A new Jersey Civil Service examination, open to citizens of the State of New Jersey, will be held at Trenton, Camden and Morris Plains, on Wednesday, February 23, 1910, for the following positions: Chief, State Hospital at Morris Plains and other State institutions. Salary $50 to 75 per month. Tailor, State Hospital at Morris Plains and other State institutions. Salary $40 per month. Candidates for the above positions should file their applications with the Civil Service Commission not later than noon, Saturday, February 19, 1910. For further information and application blanks, address Gardner Colby, Chief Examiner, State House, Trenton, N. J. Practice for Young Attorneys. Lawyers John E. Isard of this place and Sydney De La Rue, of Atlantic City, have been appointed by Judge E. A. Higbee to defend prisoners without counsel at the present term of court and in looking for the signs of ability of their indigent clients, with signal ability. As many of the offenders are practically "convicted before they go on the stand," as the lawyers' parlance has it, few acquittals have been secured by the young attorneys.

MAY'S LANDING, FEBRUARY 12, 1910.

So many people who keep chickens are complaining their hens will not lay, that the old farmer's advice is seasonable: "Keep your hens in a clean, dry, warm coop, feed 'em enough 'n' trust to luck." It is certain that hens will not lay if they are kept in a dirty, cold, and deprived of nutrition. Chickens are just as susceptible to colds and diseases as other farm stock. If you would have your hens lay, keep them in proper condition to do so, and if they don't lay them, they will be in good condition for the market.

This is no more "pneumonia weather" than any other period of cold season, if people exercise good judgment in caring for themselves. Sudden changes in temperature require changes in diet and clothing if one would guard against danger of contagion. Colds incurred for often develop into something more serious, careless exposures bringing on sore throat, grip and kindred ailments, until the doctor is called in, puts his ear to your chest, thumps your back and sends you to bed. The use of common sense is the surest safeguard against pulmonary diseases.

If a bill now before the Legislature goes through it will be possible for the Board of Freeholders of any county in the State to bridge over dangerous railroad crossings, with or without the consent and help of the railroad. That will be a good law, if it does not encourage the railroads to ignore the proper protection of crossings in order to throw the expense of bridges on the counties. What we most need is legislation enforcing the railroads to properly protect such dangerous grade crossings as that on Esterville Avenue, one of the worst death-traps in the State.

Taking the census of 1910 will be a big task, of which the enumerators will bear a considerable portion. It is necessary that the latter secure full information concerning residents and their property for the compilation of accurate statistics. The enumerators will begin the taking of the census April 1 and will have one month in which to complete the work. It thus being necessary that full particulars of every resident and, in agricultural districts, of their farms and live stock. Enumerators should be fully prepared to supply the necessary information in order to facilitate the work. Valuable information concerning national economy will be secured through the next census statistics.

Real estate transactions in Atlantic County have become so voluminous that it is thought another addition to the office of the County Clerk will soon be necessary. Exchanges of lots by real estate brokers of the resort and villages, are responsible for much of the increased recording work of the office. Most deeds, besides, are accompanied by mortgages, which must also be recorded. These facts are significant of the increased demand for County property and pose an era of building and general development of large tracts of vacation lands. Of the office it may be said, that it is now too small for the increased business, and will be enlarged as soon as possible, so the Clerk may be prepared for the needs of the future.

The purchase of a combination chemical fire engine and hose wagon would be one of the best possible insurances against loss by fire in the municipality. Such an apparatus would have the advantage of being useful in those districts not protected by the water system, that are now almost without protection. Fires are more easily extinguished by chemicals and less damage done to furniture than by water. It is said that such an apparatus can be purchased for about $1,200, of which $700 is now available. Reliance Hose Company has brought the matter to the attention of the Township Committee and it is incumbent upon that body to seriously consider the question of better protection and act upon it at an early date. Efficient fire protection to every part of the municipality and nearby districts is the right of Township taxpayers.

Two liberal excise bills have been introduced in the State Legislature by Atlantic County representatives, both far-sighted measures, calculated to advance the interests of Atlantic County and at the same time preserve the peace of the Sabbath Day. Aside from the question of moral evil, drinking alcoholic beverages is no more wicked on Sunday than on week-days, the Sunday closing law being primarily intended to prevent disturbances of the peace on that day that would result from the open sale of intoxicating liquor. Atlantic County does not want an "open Sunday"; all it asks is the fair privilege of serving to hotel guests with meals the kind of drink they ask for, be it soda water, tea, cocktails or wine. That is a sane, honest, fair-minded request. No statute should abrogate the free exercise of a man's will if it does not injure others or disturb the public peace; and it remains to be shown that serving liquor with meals does either. Physicians long ago discovered the beneficial effects of stimulants in aiding digestion; if visitors desire to drink wine with their meals for that reason, or for any other, at a public hotel as they would at home, they should not be denied the privilege. Legislation to that effect will be commended by every broad-minded citizen of the commonwealth.
