A feature of Oceanwalk life is the rolling chair. No better opportunity to study the promenade is offered than to be wheeled along at a steady pace while enjoying the sights and at the same time receiving the benefit of the invigorating ozone-laden air from the ocean. They may be hired at a number of stands, located at intervals. Rates, single, 25c. per hour;

with attendant, 50c. per hour; double, $1.00 per hour.

Longport-A pretty trip by trolley may be had by taking the Longport trolley at Tennessee and Atlantic avenues, a ride along miles of ocean front through Chelsea, Ventnor, South Atlantic, Oberon, landing you at the steamboat wharf, where steamers may be taken every half hour for a side trip across Great Egg Harbor Bay to Ocean City. Fare, Atlantic City to Longport and return, 20 cents. Cars leave Inlet for Longport every half hour direct.

Pleasantville, Country Club, Bakersville Linwood, Seaview; Somers Point and Absecon A trip across the Great Salt Meadows and through the above towns, is always remen bered: the vastness of meadows and pretty rural scenery make it a trip well worth taking. Cars leave Atlantic City from Florida avenue and the Oceanwalk, every 30 minutes at 15 and | Troop of Cavalry. 45 minutes past the hour, from 6.15 A. M. to 8.45 P. M., then 9.40, 10.15, 11.00 and 11.45.

The Speedway is a new drive, extending from Seaview, Albany avenue to Longport. It is about seven miles long. Other drives in Atlantic City are as follows: to Longport or Great Egg Harbor Inlet, eight miles; the Ele phant, or South Atlantic City, five miles : Absecon Inlet and Lighthouse, two miles : Pacific avenue drive five miles to Ventnor. Another pleasant drive is to the Inlet on a macadamized mad. Still another drive is across the salt meadows to Pleasantville, and thence along the shore road to the Country Club and Somers' Point, Absecon and other pretty towns in the vicinity of Atlantic City. The road across the neadows is kept in first class condition. The Inlet is the broad opening North of the island, admitting the seawater to the inland tidal bays and reaches. It is a mile or more from the centre of the city, and the northern terminus of the Oceanwalk, and the electric car line. At the Inlet sail beats are to hire from early morning until night, either by the trip, the hour, or the day, at $5 to $8 per day, Owners of large sail-boats form, parties charging fifty cents a head. In addition to the sail boats there are at the Inlet small steamboats and tugs for the purpose of taking persons o short trips to adjacent lands or out to sea for small sums, according to the distance co ered. The thoroughfare, which divides the is land from the mainland is broad, deep and placid : even the most timid arthonescho are subject easily to seasickness, may enjoy a safe over the waters of the thoroughfare without fear of unpleasant consequences. Those who are foud of heavier water may indulge their liking to their heart's content, for from the wharf to the wide ocean is but a few minutes There are so many attractions at Atlantic City that every taste can be satisfied. Of ourse the ocean piers are the rendervous o the general public, but the delights of the stroll on the Ocean Promenade supersede all other pleasures. . There is about the hotels and nainess places along that wonderful promenade a never-ending source of delight and entertainment. In all the resorts along the At- & Co.'s store -Adv. igntic coast there is nothing to compare with this great highway of travel, and the daily crowds to be seen there morning and evening fure and gentle little pills, field by Morse & afford a magnificent study of human nature. Co.-Adva-
