

CAFE OWNERS PLEAD TO MORE TRUE BILLS

CHARGED WITH KEEPING DISORDERLY PLACES.

Alleged Recent Election Law Infractions Investigated by Grand Jury Which Adjoins Work Until Next Wednesday.

Several Atlantic City beachfront cafe owners were called before Judge E. A. Higbee Wednesday last to answer to indictments returned by the grand jury for keeping disorderly houses and being under $1,000 bail each after pleading not guilty to the charge.

The grand jury held a session last Tuesday, when alleged infractions of the election law at the recent election of commissioners in Atlantic City were investigated, but the result of their labors was not made known.

TWENTY-FOUR NEW CITIZENS.

Several Refused Owing To Ignorance of Government and Institutions.

Twenty-four foreign born residents of Atlantic County slept Wednesday night for the first time under the full protection of the stars and stripes, having been duly admitted by Judge E. A. Higbee sitting in Naturalization Court to full citizenship.

COURT HELD SPECIAL SESSION.

Judge Higbee Disposes of Several Criminal Cases Without Jury.

Law Judge E. A. Higbee held a special session of Atlantic County Court last afternoon disposing of a number of cases where the defendants waived the right of indictment by grand jury and trial by petit jury and threw themselves on the mercy of the Court.

Association Again Victorious.

The May's Landing Base Ball Association journeyed to Tuckerton in autos last Saturday afternoon and for the second time this season took into the camp the strong team of that place by the score of 4 to 0.

Rightmare Inspects Road Work.

County Engineer E. D. Rightmare was here yesterday inspecting the work on the new County boulevard from this place to Tuckerton, now in course of construction by the Hyman, Rutherford Construction Co.

Deputy Sheriff Bartlett On Vacation.

Deputy Sheriff Bartlett is enjoying a well-earned three-weeks' vacation in Nova Scotia and will visit several other places on his vacation trip.

UNCLE SAM OFFERS POSITIONS.

Civil Service Exams To Be Held In Atlantic City Post-Office.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an examination at Atlantic City on August 27 to provide a register of eligibles from which to make certification for filling vacancies as they may occur in positions requiring the qualifications of stenography, typewriting, or stenography and typewriting in the Federal classified service in the vicinity of the place of examination.

The scope and character of the examination, the limits of civil-service districts, and the regulations governing certifications are shown in Form 121, which is available for application to the Stenographer and Typewriter Examination.

RIDDLE ELECTED MAYOR.

Commission Government On Full Swing At Queen Resort.

Commission government was inaugurated Tuesday last at noon in Atlantic City by the election of William Riddle as Mayor.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Mrs. Emma English is visiting relatives at Reading, Pa.

Mr. W. H. Rutherford spent Saturday and Sunday last in Cape May.

Mr. O. L. Barker returned yesterday from a trip in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Harry Isard, of Broken Bow, Nebraska, is here as the guest of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart were Ocean City visitors yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Craner spent the week in Atlantic City.

Miss Mary Shield and Mr. William Maxwell, of Philadelphia, visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pomeroy during the past week.

Edmund C. Chalkley, Jr. and William Pfaff, of Atlantic City, ran over Tuesday last in the former's new auto.

Miss Laura Barrett and Mr. C. S. Barrett enjoyed a vacation trip to Niagara Falls and Toronto, Canada.

County Engineer E. D. Rightmare was cordially greeted here yesterday by his many friends.

Miss Laura M. Shaver received a shower of presents being her fifteenth birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hines are on their way to Tuckerton Bay Wednesday last.

Mr. Jesse Kenney, of Northeast, Md., is here as the guest of his brother, Capt. Charles E. Kenney.

Miss Marjorie Whelpleworth, of New Brunswick, is here visiting her cousin, the Misses Young.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church held its monthly reunion Tuesday evening last at the Jackson House.

Miss Lena Lelling has been visiting her parents this week. Mrs. Keating and children are also visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. Lelling at the Park.

Dr. S. M. Nichols, District Superintendent, will conduct the combined second and third quarterly conference of the M. E. Church Monday evening next.

The Rev. John W. Lynch received a birthday shower of nearly 100 cards and greetings on Saturday last from the members of his former charge, the Wesley Memorial M. E. Church of Bridgeton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Holt and son, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are spending two weeks here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Pitt. Christian Martha, of Atlantic City, is also spending a week here as their guest.

District Deputy Great Sachem William H. Rogers, of Stratford, Conn., is in Atlantic City, recently of National City, of New York, and recently of Stratford, Conn., of New York, and recently of Stratford, Conn., of New York.

Castler Mill, E. Morse, of the First National Bank, is spending a well-earned vacation with Mrs. Morse at the home of his daughter Young, at Reading, Pa.

Michael Ingersoll is acting cashier and Melvin Ripley is assisting, under the direction of Mr. Charles D. Muckepacker, President of the bank. All are cordially invited by Pastor J. W. Lynch to attend the Joint Temperance Meeting of the M. E. and Presbyterian Churches tomorrow evening in the M. E. Church, where the Hon. Charles F. Taylor, of New York, one of the foremost lecturers on the American platform, will deliver an address on the sin of intemperance. Special music by the combined choirs.

New Store Nearing Completion.

Contractor George Abbott and his carpenters are working on the new brick and granite building for Michael Pantaleo, on the Main Street property he recently purchased from Mrs. Isabella Carson, Dr. G. L. Harker and family, who formerly resided in the property, have moved into the residence adjoining Hag's Row.

Farragut Avenue Residents Thirsty.

Farragut Avenue residents had a mild case of thirst yesterday when they opened the spigots no water came and they thought the bottom had fallen out of the standpipes. It was only a temporary shut-off of the line, however, by Supt. John Abbott in order to repair a leak in the pipe near the jail.

MINISTER TAKES CENSUS

Interesting Data Relative To May's Landing's Population Secured By Rev. J. W. Lynch After Exhaustive Canvass.

The Rev. J. W. Lynch has procured a thorough census later in the compilation of data respecting the citizens of May's Landing, including Edesville and Gravelly Run, after an exhaustive canvass of the place and inquiry at every home in the municipality. The result of his census has been compiled by the minister in the following table:

Table with 2 columns: Category and Count. Includes: Homes visited in May's Landing (41), Gravelly Run (3), Clarkstown (3), Edesville (2), Total (49), Vacant houses in May's Landing (9), Edesville (6), Clarkstown (2), Gravelly Run (1), Total (9), Grand Total of Houses (407).

Heads of families numbers of church.

Table with 2 columns: Church and Number of Heads of Families. Includes: Methodist Episcopal (10), Wesleyan Methodist (1), Presbyterian (1), Lutheran (5), Episcopal (3), Baptist (2), Dutch Reformed (1), United Presbyterian (1), Universalist (1), Hebrews (1), Congregational (1), Greek Catholic (1), Roman Catholic (48).

Non church members.

Table with 2 columns: Category and Count. Includes: Non church members (41), Total heads of homes (82), Married women and widows (59), Methodist Episcopal (2), Wesleyan Methodist (1), African Methodist (2), Presbyterian (3), United Presbyterian (1), Baptist (6), Episcopal (1), Lutheran (1), Dutch Reformed (1), United Brethren (1), Roman Catholic (8), Jewesses (1).

Total members of church.

Table with 2 columns: Category and Count. Includes: Total members of church (226), Non church members (12), Grand total of women (348), Homes conducted by widows (32), Homes occupied by men only (11), Sunday school scholars (20), Those who don't attend Sunday school (35), Children under 3 years of age (78), Adult males (250), Adults, females (29).

Grand total of population.

Table with 2 columns: Category and Count. Includes: Grand total of population (1,608), Fifteen religious denominations are represented. Twenty-one languages besides dialects representing twenty-four countries are spoken, viz: English, Welsh, Swedish, Spanish, Danish, German, French, Swiss, Polish, Portuguese, Italian, Hungarian, Rumanian, Greek, Dutch, Croatian, Slavish, Polish, Lithuanian, Russian and Yiddish or Jewish.

TO PACIFIC ON FIVE DOLLARS.

Mt. Holly Physician Accepts Wager And Starts On Trip.

Dr. Beaton Young, of Mt. Holly, and Mr. Fort, of Philadelphia, visited the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Lynch last Saturday. On Monday they left Trenton on their vacation trip across the Continent. Dr. Young, who is a wealthy man, recently took up $10,000 which he could not start with only $5 in his pocket and make the trip by paying $10 at each place he stops.

When asked about the wager Dr. Young refused to divulge the means by which he expects to carry out his conditions. "I have had a good, I have desired to travel about the United States, making my own way, but until now I could not conceive an excuse to do so," said Dr. Young. "My friend Kump will not only provide financial help, but he will be ready to pay by making it possible for me to carry out a plan I have held in abeyance for years, such a journey will be but a vacation for me, and I assure you the manner in which I have the money will not injure me mentally or physically, or cause me any undue worry. Not even my closest friends will know my methods until I return. Then I will willingly detail to them and will be armed with positive proof to show I have won the wager."

In the Churches.

Services in the Methodist Episcopal Church tomorrow will be as follows: 9:00 a. m. Church Meeting; 10:30 a. m., preaching from the subject, "The Greatest Work of Wonders"; 2:30 p. m. will be a union service of the Presbyterian and Methodist congregations, at which the Rev. Oliver M. Stewart, of New York, a renowned temperance orator will deliver an address. Special music. Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7:45. Class meeting Thursday evening at 7:45 p. m. (everybody welcome). Friday evening at 8:00 p. m. Everybody welcome. Rev. J. W. Lynch, Pastor.

Services will be held in the Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning. In the evening there will be a service at 7:45. Services will be held in the Episcopal Church at 8:00 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday School 2:30 p. m. Evening service 8:00 p. m. Music by Choir. Rev. T. F. Hennessey, Pastor.

Reached Seventh Milestone.

On her arrival at the seventh milestone on her journey Wednesday last, Miss Harriet Ingersoll, daughter of the late Dr. Charles Ingersoll, celebrated the occasion by entertaining a number of little friends at her home, spending a merry afternoon with games and refreshments. Those present were: Misses Sara Ripley, Dorothy Truempy, Esther Flinck, Sara Dunne, Helen Lynch, Dorothy Mackin, Mary V. Anderson, Virginia Ingersoll, Virginia Cary, Isabel and Olive Cain, Elmer McCarty, Helen Krouse, Sara Huber, Helen Smith, Emma and Irene Clifford, Estella Jagger, Mary Lyall, Alma Gray, Ada Fenniger, Harriet Ingersoll; Masters Blanchard Taylor, Walter Leach, Warren Ingersoll, Russell Mackepacker, Joseph Marshburn, Charles Volgt, Gordon Barker, James Mosser, Owen Judge, Alexander Alfred, Leroy Pierre, Joseph Trehan, Albert Shamer.

Big Show Coming.

On Friday evening next the Jesse James Boys in Missouri, a $10,000 production in moving pictures, consisting of 7 reels, every scene thrilling and exciting, with 240 people and 50 horses in the display, will be shown at the Opera House, with an extra addition of a fraction of pictures of the ill-fated "Titanic." Lectures will be given with the pictures, which are historical, instructive and highly entertaining. Prices 10 and 15 cents.

BUDGET OF COUNTY NEWS.

Brief Paragraphs Personal and Otherwise Bunched for Quick Reading.

Egg Harbor City.

William H. Stoen, Philadelphia, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carter have returned after a pleasant sojourn at Delaware Water Gap.

Mrs. William Wolschell and children are spending two weeks at the home of her brother, Mr. Fred, Frederick.

William H. Stoen, Philadelphia, is spending two weeks at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bergmann.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bingham and son, Edward, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Delaney.

Mrs. Charles Mueller and children, of Philadelphia, are visiting at the home of City Clerk and Mrs. William Wolschell.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered Miss Emma Oiler Saturday evening last in commemoration of her sixteenth birthday.

Rev. Henry von Boss, of Frankford, Pa., spent several days the past week with his family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst A. Schmidt.

Miss Anna Held and Miss Mary Abrahams of New York City, have again returned after spending two weeks' vacation at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bolman.

The Misses Carrie Gold, of Westfield, and Elizabeth Ford, of Philadelphia, Mrs. William Hunker, Mrs. Bella Schrieger and Miss Julia Hunker, of Duncannon, N. J., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bolman.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Butterfield and daughter Virginia, left Monday for a few months' tour of Germany, on Tuesday morning they sailed from New York aboard the steamer "Amsterdam." Mr. and Butterfield expect to return some time in September.

A woman ball team, known as the A. P. club and coached by W. S. L., who are present traveling in the East, are here for the local Atlantic tomorrow. The team travels in its own private parlor "ship" and will arrive here tomorrow morning.

Minotola.

Mrs. William Wray is confined to her home by illness.

Mrs. Charles Hamberger is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Krehm.

Mr. Robert Rice has returned from an extended visit in Bridgeton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz return to this week after their sojourn here as the guests of their children.

Mr. Sherman Bowen is the proud owner of a new Overland auto. He being an amateur driver all farmers in this vicinity are warned to keep their chickens out of the road and as far away from it as possible.

Tuesday last was doubly celebrated in this town. The citizens celebrated their holiday and the First Methodist Sunday School went to Willow Grove, N. J. for their annual picnic. The feature of the day was the ball game between the married and the single men in which the single men went down in defeat to the tune of 118. The features of the game were Kelley's and Weeks' pitching. Kelley, with the bases full and none out, Kelley fanned the entire side, while Weeks struck out 11 men in 11 innings. The single men scored 1 run in the sixth inning when Weeks received injuries to his fingers and the married men quit. Just before the company began to leave Larry Bump, in his new coupe, tried to push a stump over and crushed. Another exciting incident occurred when about three miles South of Minotola the auto struck broke down and all of the boys and girls who were in the small boats were required to walk and let the older folks ride. All of a sudden the fire works were set off. The Italians had a pretty display consisting of twelve standing pieces and about fifty different kinds of rockets.

Hammonton.

Miss Sible Bohman was an Ashbury Park visitor last week.

Mrs. J. C. Hines is spending the Summer at Chautauque, N. Y.

Miss Nancy Bassett left home after a week's sojourn in Camden.

Charles Moffatt is making extensive improvements to his residence.

"Jack" Brewer, once a famous hot-shooter, has been visiting old friends here.

Mrs. W. C. Vaughn recently entertained William E. Sparrow and Miss Adelaide Campbell, of Washington, D. C.

Blight is playing havoc with many fine chestnut trees in this neighborhood and several have been cut down.

Agent for the S. P. C. A. visited town last week and lined one driver for cruelty to horses, warning others to treat their brutes with greater care.

Risley.

Mr. Theodore Herthle has returned from New York.

Mr. Harry Mink and Ernest Bortling spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mrs. William Vanderploeg spent Wednesday and Thursday in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Joshua Mitchell and children, Bathing and Fredie, are visiting relatives in Paterson.

Mr. Albert Crothers, of Ocean City, spent several days here as the guest of Mr. George Gardner.

Mrs. Joseph Jeschinski has returned to New York after spending ten days here with her family.

Strike At Egg Harbor City.

The workers at the Egg Harbor City brick yard on Monday last went out on a strike, which they demand for a raise in wages from 60 cents to 75 cents per day. The brick yard is owned by the Ingersoll family. Ingersoll says he will not accede to the demand of his employees and in his turnage determined to stay out until they gain their point. The busy season at the brick yard is now on and many orders are received daily. The striking workmen are confident that their demands will eventually be granted, while the owner says he will not comply with their request, even if he must get out of town before the close of the plant.

Former Bank Cashier Dies.

Herman Dietz, for twenty years cashier of the Egg Harbor City Commercial Bank, died suddenly in Philadelphia Tuesday last. Heart failure was the cause of death. Dietz was formerly a prominent member of the Commercial Bank and served until two years ago. Since that time he has been a member of the Remond Champagne Company and had devoted his time to the duties of that organization.

Success Training.

The two together. We train our students to be successful in business, and have a positive plan for each student. Call on us for our bookkeeping course. Either Pittman or Greig Shortland, latter fastest system known. Write for Prospectus. Fall term begins September 2. Philadelphia Business College, 107 Chestnut St., Phila.

Bungalow For Sale.

Situated but convenient location on the road Egg Harbor City. 1 1/2 stories, best workmanship. Heating, plumbing, electric, building. Address inquiries to P. O. Box 25, May's Landing, N. J.

An End To Fly Trouble.

Simple prevention and apparatus kills every fly in your home. One for a summer, comfort, only 50 cents. Out at Truempy & Sons' store, May's Landing.

FARMER STRONG SET FREE

Released On Own Recognizance After Reversal of Conviction. He Leaves Prison Walls For Brother's Home.

William H. Stone, the aged Seneca farmer convicted a year ago for the murder of his wife at Seneca on October 19th and sentenced to a thirty year term in State Prison, was released Thursday from custody. He served about a year, when the Supreme Court reversed the verdict and he was brought back to the County Jail. Thursday his attorney, Judge Howard Carr, made a motion before Justice Samuel K. Davis that the defendant be released on his own recognizance and the State authorities, through Prosecutor C. L. Coblentz, he was set free and left for the home of a brother at Seneca.

The Supreme Court having ruled on the evidence of an alleged "confession" extorted from the defendant and set free, he was released on his own recognizance and the State authorities, through Prosecutor C. L. Coblentz, he was set free and left for the home of a brother at Seneca.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The detectives next arranged to have Stone go to the mortuary where they had placed the body in the room. In this interview, they alleged, Stone broke down and confessed to the crime, going over to the jail. Strong and afterward the woman gave him a strong and that he did not want to be arrested, and the defense endeavored to prove that Madam Grant, through her suggestion, had proposed to Stone to go to Atlantic City and to have the body placed in the mortuary.

The Supreme Court reversed the verdict and he was brought back to the County Jail. Thursday his attorney, Judge Howard Carr, made a motion before Justice Samuel K. Davis that the defendant be released on his own recognizance and the State authorities, through Prosecutor C. L. Coblentz, he was set free and left for the home of a brother at Seneca.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been described by the murderer, which he reported to the police.

The crime for which Stone was held responsible was one of the most heinous in the history of Atlantic County and for weeks detectives are and slept at the old farmhouse on the outskirts of Seneca in a vain search for clues. Strong suspicion was entertained, for one, and one day, when the sheriff had confessed that they were baffled, the old man confessed of seeking a "brother's" advice. Accordingly he went to Atlantic City, stopping at the office of Prosecutor Coblentz, where he formed his plan. Madam Grant had been

