SPECIAL JURY CONVICTS AN ELECTION JUDGE

VERDICT SURPRISED THOSE WHO HEARD CASE.

of Challenge Book Theft Charge Justice Samuel Kalisch.

Tried in the Court of Oyer and Terminer Monday last before Justice Sumuel Kalisch of the Supreme Court, Robert M. Johnson, who erved as judge of elections in the Third Precinct of the Second Ward, Atlantic City, at the general election in 1910, was found guilty by the fury on the indictment of accepting a fraudulent vote. The jury was out three bours, and the yerdlet was a surprise to those who heard the testimony upon which Justice disch, in his charge, dwelt very lightly. dinson's trial occupied the attention of the and the greater part of the day, although political economy consisted of protecting the vorking man's wages and at the same time The first of these was William C. Henry, who served with Johnson on the election board, tion day, 1919, a man came into the polling place and stated his name was Lee flutler and fter a long argument and on affidavit of a man manied Carey, was voted. About three name was Lee Butler and after a long argument was voted by Johnson. It was on this that the indictment was found.

John C. Muldoon, the other Democratic member of the election board, proved a boom-brang to the State's case. He had been subpoemed by the Attorney General, He dedured that only two men voted on the name of Lee Butler on the day in question, one carly in the morning and the other in the afternoon lon affidavit. This was Johnston's contention and gave the direct lie to Henry.

Johnston was the principal witness in his giving his name as 1ze Butler and voted, Later in the day another man came in and said he was Butler. Somebody objected to his selfond year. Graduates of College and Normal

Ernest Washington and James Offery rushed in he said, but he did not see Irving Parker with them. Washington had demanded the ballot box, stating that "he wanted that box and it ought to be here." but it had been refused, the polls had been cleared and cheed pending the arrival of police protection.

FAVOR NEW LIGHT PLANT. Project Receives Unanimous Vote at Public Meeting.

had in the Opera House the project for a municipal electric light plant, which has been under consideration for a number of years, was discussed and a unanimous vote taken in favor of the proposition. A committee of five was appointed to ascertain the cost, revenue Sheriff's residence, and other data relative to such a plant and these getitlemen, who are now making a thorough investigation, will report in the near future at a second meeting.

Dr. H. C. James was chosen Chairman of the meeting and Postmaster L. W. Cramer Secretary. The principal speaker of the evening, lishment of a municipal plant, was former much interesting data regarding the project.

Dr. James, in response to nominations made ov citizens, named the following Committee to take active charge of the project and secure full information as to the cost of installation, operation, etc., of the new plant; Postmaster Lewis W.
