ING COMMITTEE. Senate Caucus Will be Held in Atlantic City December 15-Lewis Chosen for Floor Leader

At the Republican caucus held in Trenton Tuesday, Dr. John D. Prince, an instructor of semitic languages in Columbia University and and expects to be a resident of Passaic County, was chosen speaker of the House of Assembly for the coming session of the Legislature. As the Republicans are strongly in the lead the selection practically names the Speaker.

'The Noble Outcast" Will be Produced at the Opera House To-night.

Lovers of good dramas will be enabled to enjoy a treat at the Opera House this evening when a play entitled "The Noble Outcast" will be produced, a play in four acts that will give good solid enjoyment for two hours and November. There were no severe storms, and thirty minutes, and one of the most successful dramas ever written. It is only within the last two years that amateurs have been allowed to handle it, and the moral is such the churches are using it.

The following musical numbers will be played: Selection from the Opera of Carmen, Amoureuse Waltz, Chanson Polonaise Mazurka and Loin du Bal Waltz. The proceeds will be donated to the Presbyterian Church. It is safe to say that in the whole range of the National Money For Good Roads. The State Grangers, a powerful agricultural organization in session Tuesday in Atlantic City, declared themselves in favor of a national appropriation for good roads. They maintained that if the government could appropriate money for waterways, funds to assist in building highways could be similarly applied Farmers are now paying a large amount for the maintenance of their roads, stated the president, and national appropriations would be a great relief and enable more roads to be built.

New Adding Machine Purchased For Use of County Officers.— Collector Albertson Urges Early Presentation of Bills.

The monthly session of the f Chesen Freeholders was held in Adjustic City Wednesday, when bills against the Count were ordered paid and new matters discussed pertaining to County affairs. Sheriff Enoch L. Johnson is to have his residence refurnished at a cost not to exceed $600. reeholder Winterbottom proposed this measure, which was carried unanimously claiming that the old furniture was worn and that the County should bear the expense as the office is: low under a salary. An up-to-date adding machine was ordered purchased for the use of the County officials. County Clerk Samuel Kirby made an applies tion for such a machine for his office and the Board consented to buy the machine, provided should be for the use of the Sheriff and Surrogate as well as the County Clerk The achine and stand will cost $382.50.

Bills for repairs to roads, bridges and other minor expenses were ordered read. County Collector Levi C. Albertson protested against the former practice of allowing the pres tion of bills to go until the eleventh hour, and asked that hereafter all bills be handed in by the first of each month.

Thirteen of the newly elected members of the Board took their oaths of office before Judge. Higbee, while in attendance at the meeting. It was the last meeting of the year. Re-organication will be effected on New Year's Day in the Court House here:

MAY'S LANDING, N. J., SATURDAY, DRUEMBER 5, 1908.

With the brick plant in full operation, modern machinery inestalled in the cotton mill, business conditions improving and many municipal improvements about to be made May's Landing may face the new year with full confidence in future prosperity. Everything now points to progress. The churches and possible by the support of South Jersey, which was civic societies are in a most flourishing condition, and a season of plenty for the industrious. There are always men in every community who, by their aversion to all kinds of profitable labor, are in continual hard luck; but the average American is sure the routine business of the House. of a good position and a comfortable home as a reward for honest work. Then there are those who are disposed to find fault, and who, in the face of prosperity, will find cause to deplore their surroundings. But the one all-sufficient fact remains, which no amount of pessimism, no personal dissatifaction can controvert. May's Landing is rising above the pall of the recent business depression and is about to enter into one of the most prosperous years in its history.

Building and Loan Associations of the State, from a recent report of Commissioner Watkins, of the Banking and Insurance Department, are in healthy condition. Their gross assests are given as $73,517,234, a gain of $5,715,827 over last year, which is strong proof of their stability and prosperity. The May's Landing Association is in splendid condition, and there is promise of an increased business during the coming year. The report deprecates the practice of many institutions which issue too large an amount of stock, but on the whole reflects credit upon the associations. While building associations e accepted as safe institutions in which to invest noney, their methods are not generally understood, nor the opportunity which they present for safe accumulation of savings fully appreciated. Statistics show that the element of loss in such institutions is reduced to a minimum, while the cost of loans in the aggregate is less than through other channels.

Immigrants were less during the current year than for many years, owing to the business depression has done in Pennsylvania to and consequent lack of work in many industrial "speak entire" inur ntres. Many returned to their own countries tie for months, and the tide of immigration will within a stone's threw of each other. The eliagain rise. It is becoming a serious question with the American people to educate these masses of foreign immigrants and accustom them to life in this country, for education is the only solution of the to compensate for the expense."-Canden Daily Courier. problem. Night schools are taking up the work in many communities, and are proving a welcome institution wherever established. Probably a National Republican party is responsible for that law, and it has stood for it in or State law compelling the foreigners to attend such schools and become familiar with the language and customs of the United States would be a wise measure.

Winter is coming on apace, and as long idle stoves and chimneys are being placed in use, the danger of fire from ill-constructed or uncleaned flues increases. This seems to emphasize the need of an inspector with the power of condemning dangerous chimneys and ordering repairs. Most house holders are negligent in this particular, especially where the property is not their own. Soot and dirt accumulates, or a fissure in the chimney opens, and a sudden call for the services of the fire department is the result. An inspector would lessen the danger of such fires and be an additional safeguard to the public at a very nominal cost, for the duties would not be onerous. Such an officer could also be empowered to eliminate other dangerous fire-traps.

Fish and Game Warden William Loder is determined this year to break up unlawful practices that have been largely responsible for the scarcity of game in this County during recent years, and is making every effort to detect and punish the offenders. Assistant wardens sent down by the Commission at Trenton are lending all possible aid to this end. It is necessary for the perpetuation of the various species of game that the laws be observed, and one or two but little better prospect of getting a quare deal. The manifest unfairness examples of those who have been caught breaking of conditions existing in the Hudson County Democratic organization them wilfully and repeatedly may suffice to bring that county. Nothing dampens party enthusiasm so much as corrupt about a better respect for the statute.

Ambitious young men, perhaps of the kind who are now taking advantage of the free evening school and responsibilities of that position. He does not think that the leader provided by the Board of Education, should feel Republican Senators should share in the responsibility of party guid encouraged to learn that Edmund Wilson, recently lance. Accordingly, if he has his way, the work will be divided to the appointed Attorney General of this State at a salary from time to time, though of course the designated leader will be of $7,000 a year, was a reporter at a small salary on prominently in evidence and will perform all the duties appertaining a newspaper twenty years ago. Industry, character senator Frelinghuysen's conception of the functions of a floor leader is and ability will lead a man to the highest and most altogether commendable, and it will be interesting to note how i honorable offices in the United States.

against the County be presented early, to avoid the in New Jersey may sooner or later wish the direct primary in this of accounts are hurriedly rushed through at the last an attack upon the statute enacted in this State will be made at the run on a business basis.

E. Burd Grubb and some other erstwhile Democratic leaders committed political suicide on November 3 with neatness and dispatch. Mr. Grubb never was an all wool yard wide live Democrat, and now the is a dead one in every sense of the word.

Joodman, the 'man's man' of Atlantic City, will bear rigid comparison with orthodox religious tenets, one fact is evident: he reaches the hearts of men, the men who would never be reached through ordinary religious efforts. That is why Mr. Goodman has scored such a great success, for he has thrown aside the mantle of sectarian pride and become as a man among men. The minister who said 'You can't kick a man into the Kingdom of Heaven spoke truly. There is an old adage that says you must catch your hare before you cook it, and also that the end often justifies the means. If by becoming as a man among men, tolerating their different ideas of right and wrong, respecting their opinions and convictions, Mr. Goodman has brought men within the influence of the church who else had never crossed the threshold of a place of worship, who can say his methods are not doing good?

Dr. John D. Prince was nominated for Speaker at the Republican Assembly caucus Tuesday with little opposition. His easy victory this year was made against him last year. South Jersey furnishes the merchants are laying in large quantities of new stock, majority leader, Griffith W. Lewis, of Burlington. there is promise of remunerative work for everybody He is an experienced legislator, a shrewd business man and will make a splendid leader. He will have much to cope against, however. Many old officials were re-elected, which insures smooth moving for National appropriations for good roads were recommended by the State Grange in session in Atlantic City Tuesday. The project seems a reasonable one. If national funds can be expended upon waterways, why not upon public highways? The taxpayers are now paying a considerable amount for the maintenance of their roads, and a government appropriation to help along the work seems altogether fitting and proper.

The season is close at hand when one of the greatest problems of the year is to be solved-that of the Christmas gift. The right selection is a fine art, and does not depend upon the size of the pocketbook. Too many Christmas gifts are mere exchanges of property. The gift should be according to the financial means of the donor and given with a sincere purpose

Many questions of importance will be taken up by the Legislature this Winter. The session convenes on January 12, and promises to be unusually interesting. We cor not it will consider any excise matters is a matter for conjecture.

STATE PRESS COMMENT.

State Excise Commission is interesting those engaged in the liqu trade, but its recomendations will not be authoritatively known uni it is presented to the Governor. The Commission has up to the 15th December in which to agree upon its report, but the individu opinions of its members touching some of its features being know afford room for speculation. Chairman Fiske, da Plainfield, is under control of saloons, directly or indirectly is among the recommo tions probably to be made, and if that is adopted it would mean more responsibility upon the saloon keeper, and tend to more faithful comwith its probe, and people will be anxious to know if the result promises
