Mary Jane Caronson Executrix in the within Testament named, being duly sworn did depose and say, that the within instrument contains the true last will and Testament of Frederick B. Caronson the testator therein named, so far as she knows and as she truly believes, and that she will well and truly perform the same by paying first the debts of the said deceased, and then the legacies in the said Testament specified, so far as the goods, chattels and credits of said deceased can thereunto extend, and that she will make and exhibit into the Surrogate's Office at Bridgeton, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of said deceased that have or shall come to her knowledge or possessions, or to the possession of any other person or persons for her use and render a just and true account when thereunto lawfully required.

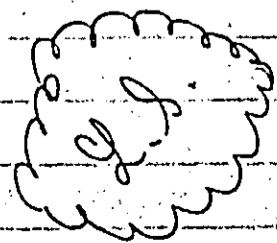

I sworn and subscribed before me, this 8th day of Dec. A. D. 1900.

Bumbersland County Surrogate's Office.

In the matter of the probate of the alleged will of Frederick B. Caronson deceased, Under Pro Probate.

Application having been made by Mary Jane Caronson for probate of the last will of Frederick B. Caronson deceased, and Letters Testamentary thereon, and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken proof, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the will produced, the validity of its execution and the competency of the testator and the probate of said will not having been contested, and it appearing that the testator died more than ten days ago, it is, on this eighth day of December A. D. 1900, adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last will and Testament of Frederick B. Caronson deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that Letters Testamentary be issued thereon to Mary Jane Caronson the Executrix named in said will who may qualify thereunder.
