

Sixth: I hereby declare, that in making the provisions in the fourth and fifth paragraphs of this Will for the payment of income from said trust funds to my sons Harry C. Brownfield and Rex N. Brownfield, it is my design to make for the support of my said sons a provision which cannot in whole or in part be taken away or alienated, by his or their voluntary act or surrender or by any act of his or their creditors and said income is to be free and discharged from any liability for any of their debts, contracts or engagements and said income may not be anticipated or assigned.

Seventh: I direct my Executor and Trustee to set apart and to invest and keep invested a fund sufficient to raise a net annual income of six hundred ($600) Dollars and to hold the same in trust and to receive the income thereof, and to pay the same in equal quarterly payments to Lucy May Striebe, now of Atlantic City, New Jersey, during her natural life, and so long as she remains single and unmarried. In the event of her death or marriage this trust shall then be terminated and no further installments shall be paid, and when terminated either by death or marriage, the principal of this trust and the securities into which the same may then be invested shall forthwith become a part of my residuary estate.

Eighth: I give, devise and bequeath all my life insurance and all the rest, residue and remainder of my Estate, real and personal of every name, nature and description of which I may be seized, possessed of or entitled to either at law or in equity, and all my estate not herein well and effectually disposed of unto my son Robert L. Brownfield, Jr. now of New York City, absolutely.

Ninth: I expressly authorize and empower my said Executor and Trustee to retain all stocks, bonds or other securities, which I may own at the time of my death, and in his discretion to sell all, or any thereof, and to exchange the same for, or to reinvest the proceeds of any sale thereof in the best mortgage bonds of any corporation or bonds under the laws of the United States, or any of them, or of any of the territories of the United States; or in any of the bonds or other securities or the capital stock of any railroad corporation which has paid dividends on all classes of its capital stock for three consecutive years prior to the investment in such bonds or other securities or stock; whether or not such stocks, bonds or other securities so retained or acquired be the kind authorized by the laws of the State of New York for investment of trust funds.

My Executor and Trustee shall not be responsible for any loss or damage resulting from his retention of any stocks, bonds or other securities owned by me at the time of my death, or from any investment made or action taken under the provisions of this paragraph.

Tenth: It is my will, and I hereby authorize and confer upon my Trustee hereinafter named but without it being in any manner obligatory upon him, the right and power to terminate either or both of said trusts for the benefit of my sons Harry C. Brownfield and Rex N. Brownfield at any time after the same may have been in force for a period of twenty years, provided in his discretion he believed it advisable so to do; and in the event of said Trustee terminating said trusts or either of them, the principal of said trust funds and the securities in which the same are then invested shall forthwith be paid over by my Trustee to my said sons Harry C. Brownfield and Rex N. Brownfield.

Eleventh: Having made what I consider the best disposition of the property I now possess at the time of my death, and aware of the ruinous consequences of litigation to all concerned in the case of Wills, I do hereby declare it to be my Will that in case any child or descendant of a child who may claim any share in my estate, shall oppose the probate of this my last Will and Testament, or take any legal proceedings to impeach the validity of any of its provisions, such child or descendant shall be barred from all participation in my property, real and personal, and the share of such child or descendant shall become and form a part of my residuary estate.

Twelfth: I nominate and appoint my said son Robert L. Brownfield, Jr. to be the Executor and Trustee of this my last Will and Testament and require and direct that he shall only be required to give bond or other security in the sum of twenty-five thousand ($25,000) Dollars to enable him to act as such in any jurisdiction either within or without the State of New York, and in the event that he shall predecease me, I appoint the Lincoln Trust Company of New York City to be the Executor and Trustee of this my last Will and Testament.

Thirteenth: I hereby revoke and annul all former Wills by me at any time made.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 9th day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

Robert Long Brownfield
