

paid to his personal representative.

(c) And at the death of my last surviving child to assign and transfer the said stock absolutely to the personal representatives of my said four children in four equal shares.

If any of my sons are minors at the time of my death and thereby unable to act as trustee, it is my will and I order and direct that upon said sons attaining his majority he shall be and become one of the trustees above mentioned and shall have equal powers with each of the other trustees.

It is my will and I order and direct that my trustees shall never pledge any of the aforementioned stock. It is my will and I order and direct that upon the unanimous assent of all my trustees the trustees may sell and transfer absolutely all (but not part) of the said stock, the proceeds of such sale to be invested and the income derived therefrom, as well as the principal at the termination of the trust, to be divided as the dividends and the stock would have been divided if the stock had not been sold.

Sixth. All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real and personal, wheresoever situated, I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, Florence Buzby, absolutely, and in fee.

Seventh. To be the testamentary guardian of my son, Kenneth K Buzby, I nominate, constitute and appoint his mother Florence Buzby Eighth. To be the executors of this my last Will and Testament, I nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife, Florence Buzby, and my two sons, Harold A. Buzby and Warren F. Buzby.

Ninth. My purpose in making the foregoing will is, having provided for my wife by a separate agreement with the Keystone Lubricating Company and by this will, to equalize the stock interest of my four sons in the Keystone Lubricating Company and to keep intact the business and organization of the Keystone Lubricating Company for all my sons in the hope that so preserved the business of that Company will furnish opportunity for the effort, energy and successful employment of all my sons working in mutual harmony.
