Atlantic County Orphans Court.
In the matter of the Estate of Sarah E. Buck, Deceased. } An Order to show cause.
Order.

This matter being opened to the Court by Eli H. Chandler, Proctor of the administrators and in the presence of Rodman Brown and John J. Brandall, respectively proctors for the administrators and Amy A. Van Dyke and William B. Van Dyke being present by his proctor, Eli H. Chandler, and it appearing to the Court that this matter has been regularly continued, by consent of all the interested parties, to this date; and it appearing to the Court that the said Frederick A. Van Dyke has shown no cause why the account heretofore stated by the surrogate, should not be opened in accordance with the prayer of the petitioners and the order of this Court, dated the twenty-second day of December, nineteen hundred and five.

It is, on this Fifteenth day of August, nineteen hundred and six, Ordered, That the said Order to show cause be made absolute and that the said account be opened to enable the petitioners to present to this Court proof of the allegations contained in said petition, and to determine the correct amount due from the said Frederick A. Van Dyke to the administrators of said estate; and it is further Ordered that the hearing on this order be had on the Thirty-first day of August, instant, at the hour of eleven o'clock of said day at Room No. 201, Bartlett Building, in the City of Atlantic City, or as soon thereafter as the proctors can be heard, and it is further Ordered that copies of this order, which copies may be uncertified, shall be served upon the said Frederick A. Van Dyke or upon his proctors Bedle, Edwards and Holmes, within five days from this date.

E. C. Higbee
Judge.
