Letter From Mr. Bradley.

"Hit a bird and it will flutter" is an old adage, which has been fully and clearly verified in the ruffled state into which a few individuals fell on the publication of a note attached to the late financial report. It is evident they had become alarmed previously, and sought to escape censure and ward off the blow, by diverting the public attention from the pointed issue, by blinding the understanding in the clatter of miserable subterfuge and in the sound of weak yet varnished sophistry. When they felt the hand upon their forehead, they sought to escape censure, and as a last hope to secure the distinction they took refuge behind the only remaining bulwark of precedent! Yes, fellow citizens, precedent! Forgive us if we persistently wrong is right, a tissue of lies truth. If precedent has the power of changing sin into holiness, in a second into integrity, then it became a virtue the day Eve stole the apple in the garden, and all the loathsome and revolting crimes which shock humanity, plunging society into misery and woe, piercing the heart with grief and sorrow, and wrapping the soul in anguish and despair, are but stepping stones to the pearly gates of the New Jerusalem!

Our Constitutional Law is a contract, a stipulation, an agreement entered into by the people to maintain their liberties, protect their inalienable rights and secure their free exercise and use, lest error and crime should be committed through ignorance, rules drawn from nature herself were embodied pointing out the requirements and specifying the duties and obligations resting upon each and every individual to carry out the specifications of this sacred instrument. Therefore any instituted usage, custom, or precedent which takes away, abridges or in the least infringes upon these rights, is a wrong, a fraud, and if not checked will sooner or later lay the foundations of our Republican institution and topple it to the ground. We have Republican Rome and other ancient nations for examples. To more effectually carry out her institutions, to maintain justice and give freedom and security to life, liberty and property. Government erected watch towers, instituted courts of equity and appointed guards to watch aggressions, that wrong might be resisted and the Law obeyed. Any officer, who, through dishonesty or even ignorance fails to discharge his duty violates his oath becomes a perjurer and is amenable to the law.

Chapter 340 of the Session Laws of 1857 is a supplement to Hammonton Charter. The 4th section of this supplement reads as follows:

4. And be it enacted, That all expenses and costs of proceedings for improvements in laying out, opening, altering, widening, filling up, grading, altering the grade of, refilling, guttering, curbing, bridging, plankings, and paving streets, roads and avenues, and repairing the same, shall be taxed and assessed to the whole town of Hammonton, excepting only such portions of said expenses and costs as said commissioners shall assess upon each separate lot or parcel of land that may be directly benefitted by said improvements.

Brother Tax Payer is there any ambiguity in this act? Is it not full, clear and explicit? Do we fail to see its bearings, to comprehend its force? Can we fail to know when we are enjoined to build our own bridges, we are exempted from taxation to build bridges in other parts of the county? What justice would there be in being compelled to pay a portion of your neighbor's taxes when you are obliged to pay your own? An enormous bridge tax has been extorted from us within the last five years, for what purpose and for whose benefit. Out of courtesy we have been allowed to plank a few gutters and build two or three small bridges within our limits. From the amount to I have estimated this sum to amount to from four to six thousand dollars. What was the cause of this injustice, I was going to say robbery? Was it ignorance? Our Freshholders and Assessors would meet such a stigma with a shower of anathemas. If they were ignorant others were not. Judge McKean I believe four years ago gave the true version of this act, even in the public streets; still the wrong has been going on. Every act has a cause. Some three years ago one hundred and thirty dollars were invested in building a road out to the chicken thieves, through which avenue they escaped. The ostensible purpose it is believed of this unjust outlay was to teach a Frog Prairie, now called a meadow. Is there not a my time is up—I am not too much—the printer is waiting for the copy.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the secretary of state, in making valuation of policies as required by the first section of a supplemental act, approved February sixth, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, shall not be restricted to the standard of valuation in said section mentioned, but may make such valuation according to the actuary's mortality and for net current interest, or according to any other recognized standard of valuation, as he may deem best for the security of the business, and the safety of persons injured.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 7, 1872.

CHAPTER CCVIII.
An act for the preservation of order in libraries and reading-rooms.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That any person who shall by noisy or disorderly conduct in any public library or reading-room in this state, disturb or interrupt the quiet and good order of those who resort to and use said library or reading-room for reading or study, may, upon conviction thereof, before any justice of the peace or police court within the city or town where said library or reading-room is established, be fined to an amount not exceeding twenty dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding ten days, at the discretion of said court or magistrate.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall be a public act, and shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 8, 1872.

CHAPTER CCIII.
A further supplement to an act entitled "An act for the preservation of sheep," approved April fourteenth, eighteen hundred and forty-six.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That so much of section four of the "Supplement to an act for the preservation of sheep," which said supplement was approved March 24, 1852, as requires the meeting of the township committee to be held on the first Monday of October in each and every year, be and the same is hereby repealed; and the said township committee shall hereafter meet on the first Tuesday of September of each and every year.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 8, 1872.

CHAPTER CCVI.

An act for the preservation of Fish in the waters of the Raritan and Sandy Hook Bays and their tributaries.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the state of New Jersey, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, or any corporation or association, to erect or cause to be erected any floating factory for the purpose of pressing or obtaining oil from fish in any of the waters of Raritan Bay or of Sandy Hook Bay, or of any of the tributaries of said bays, or of either of them.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, or any corporation or association, to place on board of any vessel, of any description whatever, any machinery with intent to use such machinery for pressing or obtaining oil from fish in the waters of the Raritan Bay or of Sandy Hook Bay, or of any of the tributaries of the said bays, or of either of them.

3. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, corporation or association, to permit to flow into the waters of the above named bays, or their tributaries, from any floating factory, or from any factory located upon the shores of either of said bays, or of either of their tributaries, any soap, pomice, debris, residuum or refuse matter of any description arising from the pressing or manufacturing oils from fish.

4. And be it enacted, That all vessels and floating erections of every description found upon the waters of the Raritan Bay or of Sandy Hook Bay, or of any of the tributaries of either of said bays, with machinery and materials for the purpose of manufacturing oil from fish, in either of said bays or their tributaries, shall, with all the machinery, stock and fixtures, be forfeited to the state of New Jersey.

5. And be it enacted, That all persons employed or in any way engaged in violation of any of the foregoing provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars or imprisonment at hard labor not exceeding one year or both, in the discretion of the court.

6. And be it enacted, That of all fines, penalties or forfeitures incurred under this act, the informer shall be entitled to receive one moiety of said fines and forfeitures, and the other moiety shall be paid into the treasury of the state.

7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 8, 1872.

CHAPTER CLXXII.
An act supplementary to an act entitled "An act to incorporate Benevolent Charitable and Associations," approved March 9, 1853.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever any benevolent or fraternal organization, or society having a grand lodge, or other legislative head, duly organized and existing in this state, shall determine to establish a college for the education of orphans and others, and a home for widows, orphans and aged members of such society in this state, they may be incorporated under the act to which this act is supplementary, and such organization or society shall have and may retain the right, through its grand lodge or other legislative head, to select and name the persons who shall form such corporation, and the first trustees thereof, and to prescribe the terms of office of such trustees, and provide for their classification, so that a portion thereof shall go out of office, and their successors be elected at each annual session, and by the members present of such grand lodge or society; the said grand lodge or society may also provide that no person shall be a trustee of such corporation, unless he be a member of such order, organization or society, in good standing; and also, require said board of trustees to report annually to the grand lodge or society founding the same, the condition of affairs of such corporation, and the amount and manner of its receipts and expenditures.

2. And be it enacted, That the restriction as to numbers in section one, and as to the amount of income in section three of the act to which this act is supplementary, shall not apply to corporations formed for the purpose of establishing a college and a home as above provided.

Approved March 8, 1872.

CHAPTER CLIX.
An act for the relief of Enoch Ireland, of the county of Atlantic.

1. Be it enacted that the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the treasurer of this state be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to pay to Enoch Ireland, of the county of Atlantic, who was a soldier in the war of 1812, or to his order, the sum of one hundred dollars per annum, during the term of his natural life, in equal quarterly payments of twenty-five dollars each; the first payment to be made on the first day of May, 1872.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 7, 1872.

THE ITEM. THE ITEM PRINTING CO. HAMMONTON, ATLANTIC CO., N. J. SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 1872.

National Union Rep. Convention.

The undersigned, constituting the National Committee organized by the Convention held at Chicago on the 20th day of May, 1868, here by call a convention of the Union Republicans at the city of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 5th day of June next at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of President and Vice President of the United States.

Railroadiana.

On Thursday last week the bill to incorporate New York and Philadelphia railroad bill came up on its final passage. It had passed the House by a large majority. Mr. Caviler, voting in the affirmative. In the Senate, however, it failed differently, being killed by a vote of 13. There is no doubt the Pennsylvania R. R. men have large sums of money to defeat the bill. The lobbyists have been very active since the bill passed the House. It is stated that as high as $10,000 was offered for a single vote. We regret to see that Senator Moore voted in the negative. From his course in Congress the people were led to believe that he would favor a fair bill, such as the above, which would provide for immense benefit to the people of the state. If it had been a mere piece of jobbery, as many of these railroad bills are, we should commend his action; but that he should help vote down an honest bill we do not understand. The plan that he and others put forth in explanation of their vote is all "hush." The course of the Pennsylvania R. R. since the completion of the line, has not gained many friends, but on the other hand has met with widespread disapprobation. Those who favored the issue (as we might expect) increased facilities and reduced rates to the people. Neither of these have as yet been rendered, and the prospect is that the State has an elephant on its hands, more gigantic in its proportions than was the Camden & Amboy in its prime. It will afford to spend a few thousands in buying up a few legislators, who will put millions into its treasury by the operation. It is a fact, universally acknowledged, that nothing brings a monopoly to its senses so quick as competition, and this is the only salvation for the state of New Jersey. Why can we get it? Not while men can be bought for $10,000 or $24,000. But it is time to cease, and that speedily, when the people will demand a voice in this thing, and send only such men as can understand that they are sent to Trenton to legislate for the benefit of the PEOPLE and not for their POCKETS or the PENNA. RAILROAD.

The only Republican newspaper in Massachusetts which opposed President Lincoln, is now the only one that opposes the re-election of President Grant. This is the Springfield Republican, which is nothing it is not crochety. It will be remembered that the Republican was a supporter of Andy Johnson when all but a few like the Republican, left him to swing round the circle in the company of adulterating Democratic sheets.

Connecticut! GRANT AGAIN ENDORSED!

Jewell's majority nearly 2000.

The result of the Election in Connecticut on Tuesday was the election of a Republican Governor, State officers, and Legislature. Gen. Jewell is elected by a majority of 30 over the combined vote of the Democrats, Temperance men and Labor Reformers. He has a majority of 1940 over Hubbard, the Democrat nominee. A victory was confidently expected by the Republicans, but one so sweeping was a surprise. It is another Waterloo to the anti-Administration Republicans. Connecticut has always been a very close State and the Democrats thought that a few hundred disaffected Republicans would turn the scale in their favor. The result shows that the "Bottle" were scarce in Connecticut as in New Hampshire, and their influence is exceedingly weak. If they can make no other show nationally, than in New Hampshire and Connecticut, they may as well put on sackcloth and ashes at once.

"THREE YEARS IN A MAN-TRAP." by T. S. Arthur. This is a companion to the well known and almost universally read "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room." To those who are acquainted with Mr. Arthur's productions this book needs no further commendation. From the first page to the last the reader is held by a fascination he cannot break. The argument conveyed by the medium of thrilling and stirring incidents is most effective. The scenes portrayed are not mere fancies, but like very many of the author's sketches are real. He shows how the sale of Rum is in many cases as damaging to the seller as to the victim. It is one of the author's best efforts and should find its way into every family—should be read by old and young. We hope our temperance societies will use their influence to give it a wide-spread circulation in the county. Mr. Geo. Rogers of Hammonton has the agency for the county and will enter upon the canvass immediately.

A FALSE IMPRESSION.—The opinion generally prevails that, owing to an advance in the price of wool, goods manufactured therefrom will be much higher than heretofore.

The clothing of a large family becomes a serious matter with some parents, and every thing that puts them in possession of information whereby a great saving may be effected should be treasured.

The truth of these opinions is strengthened by a conference with our old friends BENNETT & CO. of the renowned Tower Hill Clothing Establishment, No. 514 Market St., Philadelphia, who have purchased a vast stock of materials for Ready Cash at much lower prices than they could now be obtained for under any circumstances, and have made them up into a splendid assortment of Clothing for Gentlemen, Youth, and Boys' wear, which, owing to the recent advantages mentioned, they will be able to sell, as long as the present stock lasts, at prices no higher, and in some instances even lower than those of last year. We, therefore, cordially recommend all who wish to save money and desire fair dealing to give them a call, for they cannot be better.

Charles Dudley Warner's My Summer in a Garden has been praised in the most unqualified manner by both English and American critics—the former being the more unqualified in their compliment. It is not too high praise to say that it is one of the most engaging series of essays have been given to the world since those of Elia. The same riling sketches to now contributing a series of sketches to SCARLETTA MONTHLY, entitled "Back-Log Stories," which are as genial, polished and sympathetic as his previous efforts would lead one to expect from his pen. — N. Our Loan and Building Ass'n's.

A hire $100 of B as before, takes two shares and pays $50 advance on each, finds he can make $120 net in this association by pursuing the same course he could have done in the other, for the associations are alike, so far, but is persuaded to hire some money in this association and try his luck again. He buys $400 at 50 per cent., $600, he pays $1800 and takes up his note; he pays one-half of the interest in advance, which is $180; he also pays one-half the premium in advance, which is $100; he now has $300; the use of this for one hundred months at 10 per cent. is $310, making his receipts, 91.66. On settlement he pays $100 dues, $150 interest and $100 premium; add to this the $300 he would have made if he had not hired the money, and we have $470; take from this $310.66 receipts, and a find he has lost $378.34, or $50.34 more than he lost in the Hammonton Association.

Now let us try this same rule honestly and fairly with hiring money outside, as your correspondent of last week no doubt intended to do, for we can not believe he would have made such a bundle of it intentionally. Suppose A should hire of B $400 at usual rates, 10 per cent. off, he (A) receives $360 giving his mortgage for $400 payable in one hundred months, with interest at 7 per cent. per annum (which at the end of the time is $233.33) and he one-half the interest in advance which is $166.66, the other half to be paid at the expiration of one hundred months. This of course is agreed to paying interest annually as he agreed to do. But in this case (unlike the rules of the Building and Loan Association) he did not agree to pay any of the principal until the expiration of one hundred months. He finds after paying the premium of $40 and having the interest in advance he has $243.34 left of the $400 he hired. The use of this money at 10 per cent. for one hundred months is $202.78 making the whole amount received $446.12; on settlement he pays balance of interest $116.66 and $400 principal, making $516.66. Take out amount of receipts $446.12 and we find his money has cost him $70.54 more than 10 per cent. interest. (This is the premium and interest on it as he expected) or $307.54 less than it would have cost him if he had hired the money in the Mechanic's Association at 50 per cent. premium. But as your correspondent does not seem to be able to fully understand this kind of Arithmetic, which is simply on the principle of twice two is four, but drifts off into a remarkable statement that A might have made $200 in the M. L. & B. A. by paying them "part of some money" which we presume may be true, as no particular amount is mentioned. I will give another little transaction in the M. L. & B. A. in a simple and plain form as possible and if he should not think best to attack my key again perhaps he will be able to give some insight on this case.

A hire $200 at 70 per cent. in this instance they will pay no attention to names, such as dues, interest and premiums, but credit the association with every cent received and charge the association with every cent paid in, with interest on both, for the time they held the money and then strike the balance.

Dr. to 100 monthly pay at $1.10 each, $410 00 Dr. to 50 per cent. on above at $1.70 each, $850 00 Cr. into at 10 per cent. for 100 mo, $100 00

The monthly payments charged above are composed of one dollar dues on the share, $1.40 premium (being 10 per cent. of the premium of 70 per cent. on $200), $1.70 interest, the note being $340 making the monthly payments $4.10. The 50 months interest charged the association is the average time they held the money. We find by the above figures that A is out of pocket $217.17 after allowing the Association 10 per cent. for the money he hired of them. In answer to the thing at the Hammonton L. & B. A. in regard to premiums, I will only say I hire $600 of the Hammonton L. & B. A. at 25 per cent. premium, my monthly payments will be $8 for one hundred months or $800. If I hire $600 of the Mechanic's L. & B. A. at 25 per cent. premium the monthly dues will be $1.50; 1 per cent. on the premium of $150 will be $1.50, and the interest on a note of $750 will be $3.75 per month making the monthly payments $6.25 for our hundred months or $625. I should prefer the former.

My object in calling attention to this matter is it is possible to save our Building and Loan. As occasions from being run into the ground. We do not think they are worth a great deal to us if honestly and intelligently conducted. We have no desire to injure either Associations or their members and do not intend to injure any by any statements or hints toward your correspondent whoever he may be, but I hope his next communication may be of such a character that he will be willing to sign his own name. — G. W. PARKER.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

A half dozen illustrated articles, an unusual number of short stories, several bright essays and sketches, two or three papers of special interest to scholars, and some excellent poems, make the April number of SCRIBNER'S not only popularly attractive, but really valuable. The leading article, beautifully illustrated, is descriptive of the great United States Navy Yard at Mare Island, California. "Chronicles of Plant Life," is an entertaining paper on Natural History, with a number of striking illustrations. Prof. Schöle de Yate writes sketchily, and with the aid of pictures of the Earth's "Hidden Treasures," and Amos G. Draper himself, of the institution, describes "The Silent College at Washington." "Awakened Japan" is the title of a brief and timely paper by Noah Brooks, a writer unusually well informed on Japanese matters. The three short stories are especially readable. They are "The Millenium Mystery," by young Hawthorne; "With the False Prophet: A Mormon Wife's Story," by Mrs. Rufus Spenser; and "The Haunted Closet," by Mrs. Weiss Warner's "Back-Log Studies," are juicy and delicious as usual. These papers have attracted wide attention, and constitute one of the most attractive features of the MONTHLY. "Shall we Say 'Is Being Built'?" is a spirited and scholarly essay in the field of grammatical controversy, by Fitzedward Hall, of Oxford University. Among the poems, Margaret J. Preston's "Here of the Centenary" should not be overlooked. In the Editorial Departments Dr. Hurler expresses some decided opinions on "A Heresy of Art," "Hepworth and Heresy," "The Illinois Temperance Law," and "The General and his Friends." In the "Old Cabinet" there is a talk about "The Smut of a Real Work," "Our Friend's Portfolio," "Playing with the Passions," "Studies," and "The Sculptor and the Statuette." The Etchings show how Peter Green emulated the Grand Duke's career in the Buffalo Hunt.

The April "Aldine," like its predecessors, is a wonderful piece of typographical excellence, while its list of contents will compare favorably with that of any of its numerous competitors in the field of periodical literature. Mr. William Cullen Bryant's poem entitled "Green River," is copied, handsomely illustrated, and suggests the topic of the leading article, "Poets' Rivers," by Mr. R. H. Stoddard, the editor. Julian Hawthorne contributes a story and William Morris a short poem, called "Shameful Death." Two of the engravings, "In a Tight Place," by W. M. Cary, and "The Little Mother," by J. S. Davis, are each full of humor. The number contains three of Dore's illustrations. Mr. Stoddard will have to exert himself to make another number as good as this. The statements of the publishers that the edition is already within a fraction of 50,000 per month will be hailed as a vindication of American taste and appreciation. Such an unparalleled success, in a publication utterly non-sensational, is a recognition and endorsement of which the youthful publishers (the senior member of the firm has just turned thirty) may well be proud. We are glad that our neighborhood is represented among the patrons of The Aldine, and would urge the necessity of according the widest circulation to its elevating and refining influences. The subscription price, including a pretty oil chromo premium, is $5, and the publishers' address is James Sutton & Co., 23 Liberty Street, New York.

CARE OF BIRDS.—Almost every family has a canary bird or some part of the bird kind. A little book of 72 pages by Charles Reiche of Germany, entitled The Bird-Fancier's Companion, published by Charles Reiche & Bro. New York and Boston, will prove a valuable handbook for all such people. It contains the information required for the proper care of all European and American cage birds in health and sickness. The Company supplies the trade, and single copies can be obtained at Mr. Reiche's Bird Store, 23 Chatham St. New York City. Sent by mail.

"Among the many remarkable contributions now running through this great magazine (SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY) we would draw the reader's special attention to an exquisite series of papers, entitled 'Back-Log Studies,' by Charles Dudd Warner."—Brooklyn (N. Y.) Argus.

PURIFY YOUR BLOOD

AT ONCE.

Wherever Poke Root grows, it has a local reputation for curing Rheumatism, and as a Blood Purifier. With all this local reputation and the praise of distinguished Physicians (Dr. Coe, Lee, King, Wilson M. Hunt, Griffiths, Copland and others) who have tested its medicinal powers, it has been neglected by the profession at large, as much through a want of a proper appreciation of its merits, as a knowledge of the proper way to prepare it for medicinal use. Dr. Oliver Green, a physician who votes his entire time to the duties of his profession, and who has the largest practice of any physician in Southwestern Ohio, has fully tested the active medicinal qualities of Poke Root during the last 25 years, and unhesitatingly pronounces it to have more merit for the cure of the diseases of the blood, than any and all other articles of the kind. He has cured the most obstinate cases of Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Dropsy, and all the diseases of the blood, under the name of Dr. CHOKET'S Compound.

Dr. CHOKET'S Compound
This preparation is made of the active and powerful ingredients of the Poke Root, the best Tonic Preparation of Iron, and is offered for the preparation of the blood, and the relief of the sufferer from the diseases of the blood, under the name of Dr. CHOKET'S Compound.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

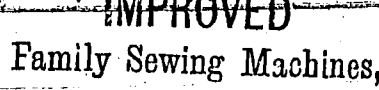

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, it should be provided with this antidote for them. Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear. Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it. Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it. Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. For a Cough and Cold, no better remedy can be had. Take small doses three times a day until the feet in warm water at night, until the disease is broken up. For Influenza, when it affects the throat or lungs, take the same course. For Whooping Cough, give small doses three or four times a day. For Croup, give large and frequent doses until the disease is overcome. No family should be without the Cherry Pectoral on hand to protect them, in case of attack from the above complaints. Its timely use often spares the patient a great amount of suffering and risk, which he would incur by waiting until he could get other aid. Parents, keep it in your house for the exigencies that arise. Live dear to you may be saved by it. So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that the best qualities it ever possessed are strictly maintained. Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.
